Nation Hard Hit By Boxcar Need

Rolling Stock Situation Very Acute Minister Says - - - Industry Suffers

By The Canadian Press

A shortage of 13,000 freight cars on Canadian railways yesterday slowed to a trickle the flow of bread grains from Western Canada to the ports, brought a near halt in the hauling of newsprint from the country's paper mills, and created shipping problems for scores of plants turning out products in high demand.

In the House of Commons at Ottawa, Transport Minister Chevrier said the shortage in rolling stock was "very acute." He promised that the transport controller and the railways would distribute available equipment in such a way that no industries would have to close down.

The newsprint industry mustered every inch of available storage space in and about its plants in order to keep in production while the outgoing flow of finished paper remains curtailed.

The big squeeze in boxcars was attributed to seasonal factors, to the Western blizzards which tied up hundreds of cars on branch lines, and a basic postwar shortage resulting from heavy wear and tear on equipment and limited replacement during the war years.

In the three Prairie Provinces almost one-third of the aggregate storage capacity of more than 300,000,000 bushels was filled with grain awaiting cars to take it to waiting ships.

At the ports elevators were close to empty. Vancouver reported grain traffic on a car-to-car basis, with two grain carriers in port awaiting cargo and 16 more scheduled to arrive from Britain in the next week. In the Maritimes, the situation was slightly better.

Food products, aluminum, steel and cement were among the industries which saw difficulties ahead. Also mentioned were canning, can manufacture and motor car companies as industries likely to feel the pinch.

Vancouver estimated it needed 270 cars a day to keep grain loadings up to schedule, but yesterday for instance only 73 were in sight. Grain dealers said that seldom if ever had the situation been as serious.

Car Situation At a Glance

Freight car shortage estimated at 13,000 units.

Transport Minister declares available equipment to be distributed so no industries will close.

Newsprint industry musters storage facilities to keep plants operating until rolling stock available. One firm considers using airplane hangars.

Grain elevators at Vancouver empty with 18 ships in port or due to arrive for wheat cargoes.

Aluminum, steel, cement and food products among industries facing pinch.

Say Eisler Funds Went to Montreal

MONTREAL, Feb. 20 (CP).—A police spokesman said tonight that the municipal anti-subversive squad has uncovered evidence that Gerhart P. Eisler, alleged German Communist agent now facing deportation proceedings in the United States, had supplied funds to Communists in Montreal and other Canadian cities.

"We are still working on it," the spokesman said.

Police sources added that Montreal Communists were left temporarily without financial help when Eisler was arrested in the United States. Earlier police reported there are between 5,000 and 7,000 Communists in Montreal.

R.A.F. "Bomb" Isolated Village

Men of the Royal Air Force pack loaves of bread into containers which they dropped by parachute into the snow-bound village of Longnor, Staffordshire, England. The village was cut off from the world by the devastating storms still sweeping most of Britain.

Villagers of Longnor are shown carrying some of the containers of bread which enabled the villagers to eat for the first time in nearly a week. Longnor is just one of the little communities cut off from civilization by the freak storms which have ravaged British coal supplies.

Britain's Weather Worsens

LONDON, Feb. 20 (CP).—Britain's "little ice age" maintained an iron grip on these islands tonight, setting cold weather records, creating an unprecedented menace to North Sea shipping and causing fuel authorities to cast an uneasy eye on coal stocks being maintained so painfully.

Patrol boats and R.A.F. planes reported steady progress through the North Sea on ice floes even as stormy weather once more tied up coal ships in the northeastern ports and threatened to harass rail transport.

"It's too early to predict the effect on deliveries of this further hardening in the weather but it cannot be other than serious," a Fuel Ministry spokesman told a press conference. Such press conferences have been held daily since the crisis in British coal stocks caused drastic power cuts 11 days ago.

Drift ice moving in advance of an ice field was reported a few miles off the east coast across shipping lanes. Some trawlers were caught in the field but managed to get free.

"Conditions in the North Sea are unprecedented," said one fisheries official. "There are no records of anything like it being known before."

Yesterday London passed its previous record of no sun for 18 days and this morning exceeded this century's previous mark of 132 hours of continuous frost.

Britain Sets 1948 Limit On Getting Out of India

Lord Mountbatten Confirmed as New Viceroy In Move Designed to Produce Full Agreement

LONDON, Feb. 20 (AP).—Britain today for the first time set a definite date—June, 1948—for getting out of India and designated a great-grandson of the first Empress of India to liquidate almost 200 years of rule over that rich subcontinent of 400,000,000 people.

Prime Minister Attlee, in an historic statement to a House of Commons listening in strained silence, indicated that unless quarreling Moslems and Hindus resolve their differences over writing a central charter for Indian independence by next year's deadline, Britain may turn control over to provincial governments. In a splintered India, New Delhi dispatches said this might mean the Moslems would win a measure of Pakistan—self-rule.

New Viceroy

LORD LOUIS MOUNTBATTEN

He announced the appointment of Admiral Viscount Mountbatten, whose mother was a granddaughter of Queen Victoria, to succeed Field Marshal Viscount Wavell as Viceroy and Governor-General in March. Despite continued prodding by Opposition Leader Winston Churchill and cries of "Answer!" from Conservative benches Attlee refused to explain why Lord Wavell was being recalled. An earldom will be conferred upon Lord Wavell.

As in the case of Lord Wavell, Lord Mountbatten's new post has a dual function—that of Viceroy and Governor-General. As Viceroy, he will be the representative of the King dealing with the princely states. As Governor-General, he will be the chief British administrative officer of British India, a post which involves a somewhat different function. It will be in his capacity as Governor-General that he will negotiate with the Interim Government headed by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, vice-president of the Indian Congress Party.

An informed source said the "whole purpose" of Attlee's statement was to "produce agreement" between Moslems and Hindus, who have refused to work together in drafting a constitution for independence.

The specific date was set, the source added, because "so long as British control continues on an indefinite basis, prospects of encouraging Indian parties to come together is prejudiced."

New Delhi dispatches said observers there believed Attlee's statement was strongly favorable to the predominately Hindu Congress Party. Replacement of Lord Wavell also was regarded as placatinging the Congress leader, Jawaharalal Nehru, who was reported of the belief that Lord Wavell was an obstruction to a settlement with the Moslem League.

Attlee voiced the British desire to turn over the reins of Government in India to authorities established by a constitution approved by all parties in accord with the British Cabinet mission plan of last year, but added "there is at present no clear prospect that such a constitution and such authorities will emerge."

Will Strike To Finish Miners Say

OTTAWA, Feb. 20 (CP).—Maritime coal miners will carry their strike for higher wages "to a finish," Freeman Jenkins, union leader of the 13,000 strikers, declared tonight as prospects for an early settlement faded.

Leaving for home after several days of fruitless conferences aimed at obtaining a "satisfactory" contract for the miners, Mr. Jenkins, president of District 26 of the United Mine Workers of America (C.C.L.), said the fight would be waged "with all the resources we have."

In an interview, Mr. Jenkins indicated the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick miners were prepared to hold out for three months if necessary to obtain their demands, chief of which is a raise of $1.40 a day for dataal-paid men. The Dominion Coal Co.—chief operator—has offered $1 a day contingent on increased coal production.

Mr. Jenkins had been here since last Saturday, when final negotiations with the company broke down on the $1-a-day issue.

Guthrie Demands Action On New Up-Island Road

Immediate action on the overdue provision of a new road from Duncan to Chemainus was demanded in the Legislature yesterday by Samuel Guthrie (C.C.F., Cowichan-Newcastle).

He declared that Island roads generally were in very bad condition, but worst of all—"positively dangerous"—was the Duncan-Chemainus section.

"Surveys have been made, but nothing has been done to carry out this important and urgent work," Mr. Guthrie said.

He supported Up-Island complaints about the inadequacy of the present ferry services between Victoria and Vancouver and Nanaimo and Vancouver, and declared that it was high time something was done to break the monopoly held by a single company. Services now provided were so bad that often there was barely standing room on the boats, he said.

Plight of farmers from Cobble Hill to Nanaimo due to shortage of water was quoted by Mr. Guthrie as one of the reasons for farmers drifting to the cities. There were hardly any young men taking up farming nowadays, and unless something was done to assist the man on the land there would soon be no farmers at all.

The Dominion Government was doing little to help. It had removed the subsidy on milk, yet had not interfered at all with the huge subsidies paid to other industries.

The Island member asserted that the Government was derelict in its duty in not coming to grips with the problem of housing. "If there is one place on earth that shouldn't be short of homes, surely it's the Province of British Columbia," he said, demanding that shipment of lumber out of the province should be stopped until the needs at home were met and houses provided for returned men.

Britain Backs U.S. Plan For Atomic Punishment

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Feb. 20 (AP).—Sir Alexander Cadogan, British delegate to the United Nations Security Council, reaffirmed today his country's support of the United States demand for no veto on punishment of prospective atomic criminals.

Speaking briefly in a 55-minute session of the council, the British delegate said there are three fundamental differences between the United States position and the Russian stand, as disclosed in 13 proposals submitted last Tuesday by Andrei Gromyko.

He listed them as (1) The veto, (2) "The emphasis to be laid on the question of prohibition of the atomic weapon at this stage" and (3) "The emphasis to be given to the development aspects of the international control agency's work."

Russia insists that the veto in the Security Council must remain unchanged and that atomic controls be set up within the framework of the Security Council.

The United States, on the third point, wants an atomic development authority to have full control of atomic developments while Russia's proposals envision the exchange of information among the nations and do not vest in the control agency the power to supervise future developments.

Death Toll Set at 15 In Los Angeles Blast

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20 (AP).—A tremendous explosion blasted a one-story brick building into smoking rubble today, killing at least 15 persons, jolting the entire downtown district and breaking windows in houses and office buildings 70 blocks away. More than 100 were injured.

Shortly after the explosion, which leveled the O'Connor electro-plating plant, Assistant Police Chief Joseph Reed told reporters he feared the death list might range from 30 to 75, but by nightfall, bulldozer, power shovel and other workers, probing the debris, could find but 15 bodies.

J. J. O'Connor, head of the electro-plating firm, told reporters late today:

"We were doing something for the Government. You can see what happened."

He declined to amplify the statement, but said that a War Department representative from San Francisco was investigating.

The reverberating explosion, which also demolished three nearby residences, was followed by a fierce fire. In a mile-square area, 300 houses were damaged in what police described as the worst Southern California disaster since the earthquake of March 10, 1933, when more than 130 were killed.

Earl H. Richardson, chief of the city Fire Prevention Bureau, attributed the explosion to chemicals in the plant.

Richardson expressed the theory that the firm's large supply of acid caused the blast.

Firm to Build $50,000 Plant

Construction of a $50,000 ultra-modern plant for Hobbs Glass Ltd. on Port Street, near Vancouver Street, will commence within several days, it was announced yesterday by E. L. Keyes, manager of the firm.

Excavation work at the site has already been started, and a building permit will be obtained Monday, Mr. Keyes said. The building, to be one of the most modern in the city, will be a two-story construction, measuring 60 by 113 feet.

The firm expects to move to its new quarters something next Fall from its present location on Broughton Street. The building will be equipped with modern equipment for the edging and handling of glass products.

George Wheaton is the contractor and Hugh C. Perram is the architect.

Canadian Named To U.N. Position

PARIS, Feb. 20 (Reuters).—John Grierson, former head of the Canadian National Film Board, was named today as adviser to Dr. Julian Huxley, director-general of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, on all matters relative to public information.

Columbians' Head Is Found Guilty

ATLANTA, Feb. 20 (AP).—Emory Burke, 31, Negro-baiting, Jew-hating president of Columbians, Inc., was convicted today of usurping police authority with his brown-shirted troopers.

A 12-man Superior (circuit) Court jury convicted Burke on three misdemeanor counts and acquitted him on two other counts, the latter at the direction of the court.

Judge Carl Crow deferred sentence until tomorrow.

Employment Figures Low

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP).—The Department of Labor reported today that employment opportunities in Vancouver and other points of the Province, now at the "lowest point in some time," will not improve generally until mid-March.

The National Employment Service here reported there were in the first week of February 16,315 unplaced applicants for employment and only 1,737 unfilled vacancies. In New Westminster there were 3,189 unplaced applicants and 209 unfilled vacancies, and in Victoria, 2,310 applicants against 532 vacancies.

Bill Would Ban Portal Suits

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP).—A bill declaring "null and void" the $5,785,000,000 country-wide accumulation of portal pay claims—and barring any in the future—was approved today by a Senate judiciary subcommittee.

Wolves Attack Dog Teams

THE PAS, Man., Feb. 20 (CP).—Trappers in Northern Manitoba are keeping a close watch on their dogs as a result of vicious attacks by wolves upon chained huskies during the long Winter nights of the last two weeks.

Whether the wolves attacked the dogs as a result of a disease resembling distemper, which is prevalent among Northern canines, or because they could not find game was not known. Several reports have reached here, however, of cunning attacks by lobo or solo wolves on dogs.

Police Face Blank Wall In Brutal City Beating

City police last night faced a blank wall of mystery in investigations of the brutal beating of Yuen Gin Hing, 38-year-old vegetable peddler, whose bloudgeoned body was found in a pool of blood Wednesday night at the rear of 826 Caledonia Avenue.

Th left side of his head was a gaping hole, his jaw was broken and he suffered multiple bruises on his arms and hands.

Early this morning he was still hovering between life and death in Royal Jubilee Hospital.

After more than 24 hours of persistent investigation, police were unable to uncover either the instrument used or any definite lead toward the person or persons responsible for the assault.

Investigating the case under Detective Inspector Henry Jarvis are Detectives Angus Munro, Fearon Woodburn, William Richards and Louis Callon.

Not the least of the mysteries facing police is the correct name of the victim. He is variously known as Yuen Hing, Yuen Gin Hing, Hing Fong and Dun Hing.

Dalziel Factory Safe Cracked

Yegs cracked and looted the safe of the Dalziel Box Factory, 2800 Bridge Street, early this morning, city police reported.

Constable N. T. Galbraith discovered the theft at 12:40 a.m. and notified headquarters.

The dial had been broken from the same and the door punched. Entrance had been gained from the west side of the building through a shingle mill and then into the box factory.

Exact loss will be determined in the morning, police said.

Launch Placer Mining Project For B.C.'s Precious Platinum

PRINCETON, B.C., Feb. 20 (CP).—Pioneers today watched preparations to bring true a long-time dream as plans were announced for a $1,250,000 placer mining project to take gold and platinum from the Similkameen and Tulameen Rivers here.

A young United States airman, who served with the R.C.A.F., first saw Princeton from the air during the war, and in a later survey hunted out placer properties, today is the director of a dredging company which plans to start operations in the Spring.

He is 31-year-old W. Scott Ford, who, in company of Sheridan R. Atkinson, 36-year-old dredge expert, will superintend operations.

Princeton, known to geologists for years as one of the world's richest platinum areas, is 130 miles east of Vancouver in the Okanagan Valley.

Pioneer placer miners remember the time when platinum held no interest for them; they sought only gold. Platinum was "dirt cheap," selling for 26 cents an ounce, but today it brings $88.

Ford said he and his associates control surface area of 4,000 acres, with an estimated yardage of more than 190,000,000 cubic yards of "gold and platinum-bearing gravel."

He claimed more than 9,000,000 yards of gravel have been proven to contain $4,396,470 worth of precious metals.

"We are prepared to establish a dredging empire," said Ford. "Our first dredge will go into operation in the Spring."

Ultimately, four other big dredging units, with daily capacity of 5,000 yards of gravel, will be put in operation.

The project will be one of British Columbia's first major postwar placer operations.

$5,000,000 Pulp Mill Under Construction at Port Alberni

PHOTOGRAPH shows the Bloedel, Stewart & Welch Co., Ltd., large $5,000,000 pulp mill being constructed on the waterfront at Port Alberni. A large portion of the 30-acre site was formerly a swamp, reclaimed with material brought from the mouth of Somass River. When completed, the pulp mill will consist of a recovery building, digester, screen-room building, machine shop, warehouse and six 60-foot concrete tanks. Wood waste from the present Bloedel, Stewart & Welch Co., Ltd., sawmill will be brought to the pulp mill on a conveyor belt 4,000 feet long and three feet wide. The new mill will employ 325 men in three shifts to produce more than 100 tons of sulphite pulp every 24 hours. Plans also call for a 150-foot wharf on Somass River to accommodate small freighters calling for pulp.

Policy Decisions by Government Criticized by Woman Member

One of the two women members of the Legislature, Mrs. T. J. Rolston (Cln., Vancouver-Point Grey) doesn't like a growing tendency on the part of the Government to make rubber stamps of its private members.

In the Throne Speech debate in the House yesterday, Mrs. Rolston castigated the Government on pronouncements of policy a month or more before the House met to give private members the right they should have to be heard on questions of policy.

"If the province is just to be ruled by the Executive Council, then we are not having representative democracy," she declared.

Quoting press reports of recent Government announcements, Mrs. Rolston exclaimed:

"I certainly object to having these things settled for me and for other members of the Legislature before we even arrive on the scene. Some of these things are fundamental, and as a member I have the right to take part in the discussion about them instead of having them automatically settled for me before I arrive."

The first member for Point Grey warned the House that it must not overlook the importance of the place of the private member.

"We are still supposed to live in a democratic world. What's the good of us if we are just window-dressing, at great expense?" she asked. Mrs. Rolston maintained that the people spoke through their members, who should help to make public policy.

She believed that it would be to the advantage of constituents if during certain hours the proceedings in the House were broadcast.

Violence Flares in Holy Land Explosions Rip Iraq Oil Line

JERUSALEM, Feb. 20 (AP).—Explosions ripped the Iraq Petroleum Company's pipeline in two to four places near Haifa today and a purported spokesman for Irgun Zvai Leumi said the blasts and other violence were "our soldiers' reply" to British restrictions against Jewish immigration to the Holy Land.

Bomb blasts, mortar fire and the chatter of small arms were heard last night in the area of Haifa, principal Palestine port and scene of forced evacuation of would-be Jewish immigrants to detention camps on Cyprus.

A Government announcement said the explosions cut the 800-mile oil line from Iraq in two places. Messages to the press purported to be from Irgun Zvai Leumi, underground Jewish resistance organization, claimed that the line was cut in four places.

The breaks, as reported by the Government, were just outside the installations of the giant Consolidated Refineries, Ltd., at Haifa Bay, and in the vicinity of the village of Indur, 23 miles southeast of Haifa. Extent of the damage was not disclosed.

Other acts of violence last night included an attack on an R.A.F. station at nearby Ein Shemer in which mortars, machine guns and light arms were employed. The attackers were driven off and an R.A.F. official here said there were no casualties. The unit at Ein Shemer had taken part in searches for Jews lacking immigration certificates.

Two electrically-detonated land mines were exploded in the fashionable Mount Carmel section of Haifa while the R.A.F. station was under attack. Two heavy army vehicles were passing by at the time and one was damaged, but there were no casualties.

In Jerusalem three persons were arrested after the army and police searched through printing shops, stores and private homes outside the security areas.

Lester Mack Found Guilty

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP).—A verdict of guilty of attempted murder was returned by a Supreme Court jury today in the case of Marvin Lester Mack, 26-year-old United States navy cook charged with the shooting of Olive Negrich, 24, of Gilbert Plains, Man., last August 24. He was remanded to the end of the assizes for sentence.

The pretty, dark-haired waitress was paralyzed from the waist down by a bullet which clipped her spine, and she was twice brought into court in a wheel bed to testify during the four-day trial.

The shooting followed a lovers' quarrel after Miss Negrich broke her engagement to the sailor.

Employees Ask Increased Pay

Demand for a 12½ per cent increase in wages for city lighting department employees has been placed before the lighting committee of the City Council, Ald. F. G. Mulliner said following a meeting yesterday.

The request was forwarded to the committee by F. J. Bevis, business agent for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Ald. Mulliner said his committee had studied the request but had come to no conclusion. He recalled the department employees were granted an increase early last year.

The committee also has received a petition from 21 residents of Pembroke Street requesting improved street lighting, he said. The request will be met as soon as supplies of copper wire which have been on order for several months arrive, Ald. Mulliner said.

The committee accepted the tender of the McLeod-Lumsden Ltd. for a department service truck.

Vancouver Men Freed on Bail

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP).—J. L. Northey and his two sons, Paul M. and Archibald J., were released on bail today pending hearing on their appeal from conviction and sentence by County Court Judge C. J. Lennox for conspiring to defraud the Dominion Government on war contracts.

Chief Justice Gordon M. Sloan heard the application in the Court of Appeal sitting in Victoria and set bail at $5,000 for the senior Northey and $10,000 each for the two sons.

Application for leave to appeal the conviction and sentence was filed in the court registry here today by Senator J. W. DeB Farris, defence counsel.

The elder Northey was sentenced to 18 months in jail and a fine of $1,000 or an additional three months. The two sons were sentenced to three years in jail and fined $2,000 or an additional six months.

The appeal from conviction was on three grounds: That the conviction was against the evidence and the weight of evidence; that there was no evidence to support the conviction and that the trial judge wrongfully admitted evidence.

The sentence was appealed as being "excessive."

Bearded Britons Ask Protection

LONDON, Feb. 20 (Reuters).—Government aid will be enlisted to protect British men against women who buy shaving soap to eke out their washing soap ration, it was disclosed today.

A Labor Member of Parliament, F. W. Skinnard, will put the problem up to the president of the British Board of Trade, Sir Stafford Cripps.

Skinnard will ask: "Whether your attention has been drawn to the shortage of sticks of shaving soap; that this has been accentuated by purchases of this commodity by housewives who are using it in lieu of unobtainable domestic soap; and whether you will institute a form of rationing to insure that men can obtain at least one stick a month."

Strachey Seeks Food Speed-Up

OTTAWA, Feb. 20 (CP). — Hon. John Strachey, British Food Minister, arrived here from Britain by air today for an eight-day Canadian tour in which he will discuss means of speeding the delivery of Canadian food supplies overseas.

A slight mishap marred his arrival at nearby Rockcliffe airport this morning when his aircraft overshot the field, skidded on ice and damaged the undercarriage. Neither Mr. Strachey nor any member of his party was injured.

Later, the British minister went into conference with Trade Minister MacKinnon, presumably to discuss Canada's wheat commitments to Britain under the four-year Anglo-Canadian wheat agreement and possibly to determine whether it could be possible for the Dominion to ship more of the needed bread grains.

Tomorrow, he will discuss supplies of bacon and other meats with Agriculture Minister Gardiner and meet members of the Parliamentary press gallery in a conference at the Parliament buildings.

Saturday, he will discuss palm oil supplies from Nigeria with Kenneth Taylor, Prices Board deputy chairman, and F. H. Lehberg, board oils administrator, before leaving on a jaunt which will take him to Winnipeg, Regina and Toronto. He later will visit Washington on his way back to the United Kingdom.

DAMAGE CLAIMS CONSIDERED

OTTAWA, Feb. 20 (CP).—Finance Minister Abbott said today that claims by Prince Rupert, B.C., against the Federal Government for damage to streets and sewers by Canadian armed forces were being considered along with similar claims from other municipalities.

Halibut Open First of May

SEATTLE, Feb. 20 (AP).—Halibut fishing, a big business in the Pacific Northwest and Alaska, will reopen May 1 after the longest closed season in history, Harold E. Lokken, manager of the Seattle Fishing Vessel Owners' Association, announced today.

The 1946 season, during which 52,500,000 pounds were caught, closed August 19. Because an unusually large number of boats were fishing, the quota set by the International Fisheries Commission was reached in the record time of 11 days and an early closure resulted, Lokken explained.

DONORS NUMBER 17,000

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP). — Commissioner C. A. Scott, of Vancouver, told more than 100 delegates of 60 branches of the Canadian Red Cross Society, attending the annual meeting of the provincial division here today, that 17,000 voluntary blood donors registered with the Red Cross since their new service was begun here January 22.

Electricity Board Meets By Candlelight!

These sad-looking, overcoat-clad gentlemen are members of London's Central Electricity Board, and they are glumly discussing Great Britain's coal shortage and its effect on the country. So serious is the situation in the United Kingdom that even this board had to hold its meetings by candlelight—and, like other Britons, the members had to resort to the use of additional clothing to keep warm. Discomforts now suffered by the people may be a thing of the past next week, authorities hope.

. . Oddities . .

CHARLESTON, W.Va., Feb. 20 (AP).—Note to be read at chivalry's grave:

A bill introduced in the West Virginia House of Delegates today would allow courts to order the woman in a divorce case, if she is the offending party, to pay her ex-husband alimony, bear all court costs, and contribute to the support of the children.

The measure's sponsor offered it as a deterrent to "fly-by-night divorces."

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20 (AP). — County Supervisor John Anson Ford takes that old "Three's a Crowd" saying seriously.

He proposed that benches in county parks hereafter be built to accommodate two persons, or one, doing away with the old three-seaters.

SAPPORO, Japan, Feb. 20 (AP).—Pfc. Phillip T. Schmitt of Two Rivers, Wis., ruled here as "King for a Day" after winning an essay contest on the subject of communicable diseases.

Schmitt was served breakfast in bed by his seregant, was excused from official duties and given a jeep for his use throughout the day.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 20 (AP).—Ten-year-old Harold Peters listened attentively to a graphic radio program on forest fire fighting. As the program depicted the flames roaring over a mile area the youngster could smell the smoke.

Then he discovered a fire and real flames. The radio had caught fire.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP).—It was very embarrassing to Aaron Garcia.

The lightweight boxer bounced into a Golden Gloves ring last night. He went to his corner after receiving instructions in the centre of the ring.

The three-second bell rang and Garcia started removing his robe. He almost collapsed — he'd forgotten his trunks.

Chutes Deliver Rocket Warhead

WHITE SANDS, N.M., Feb. 20 (AP).—The United States Army succeeded today in lowering by parachute an instrument-loaded warhead of a German V-2 rocket from an altitude of 68 miles.

The ribbon parachutes worked so satisfactorily the container, loaded with data-gathering instruments and two cameras, was 50 minutes in returning to earth.

This compared with the 190 seconds the rocket spent in reaching its zenith.

A helicopter also was used for the first time in efforts to keep track of the descending warhead.

The name bootlegger goes back to days when the liquor was concealed in the large sea-boot of the smuggler.

House Market Decline Noted

BABSON PARK, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP).—This is no time for buying new houses, bonds or low-price stocks that are not paying dividends, Roger W. Babson, financial analyst and writer, said today.

In an address at the 20th annual Babson business conference, Babson advised buying commodities only on a "hand to mouth" basis and restricting real estate purchases to "small sustenance farms properly located with good soil and near small communities which will never be bombed."

"The real estate market has begun to decline, starting with a break in high-priced homes which already have declined 20 per cent since a year ago," Babson said.

Armed Bandits Slug Chinese

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP).—Two Chinese were beaten by vicious thugs in separate attacks tonight.

Two bandits, one armed with "a large, black gun," were foiled in a holdup attempt on a West End grocery store but one of the bandits slugged the proprietor, 50-year-old K. Hong, over the head before fleeing.

Hong, victim of thugs twice within the year, was taken to hospital for treatment.

The second strongarm victim, an unidentified peddler, was attacked and robbed of $20 at the back of his truck while making a delivery. Evidently beaten savagely about the head, he was found lying unconscious behind his truck.

"Penitentiary" Stumps Jurors

HAMILTON, Tex., Feb. 20 (AP). — A District Court jury listened to a forgery case here today and returned this verdict:

"We, the jury, find the defendant guilty and assess his punishment at two years."

"Well, gentlemen," said Judge R. B. Cross, "you should amend the verdict by adding the words 'in the state penitentiary.'"

"We know that ought to be in there, judge," one juror said, "but there wasn't anyone on the jury who knew how to spell penitentiary."

Major Blasts

By The Associated Press

Some dozen major accidental explosions in North America, excluding mine disasters, have taken death tolls of more than 25 each in the 20 years prior to Thursday's electroplating plant blast in Los Angeles.

Still highest in cost of lives was a blast following a munitions ship collision in Halifax Harbor in 1917, which took 1,500 lives and destroyed more than two square miles of the city.

Second and third highest were an ammunition depot explosion at Port Chicago, Cal., in 1944, costing 350 lives, and a schoolhouse gas explosion at New London, Tex., in 1937 killing 294.

One of the most costly explosions in the United States, the "Black Tom" disaster on July 31, 1916, did $22,000,000 worth of damage to the New York waterfront, but only cost two lives. Other major explosions of the last 20 years include:

May 18, 1918—More than 200 killed and 200 injured in munitions explosion at Aetna Chemical Company plant at Oakdale, near Pittsburgh, Pa.

October 4, 1916—Nearly 100 killed and more than 200 injured in explosion at Gillespie Loading Company plant at Morgan, N.J.

May 15, 1929—One hundred killed when X-ray equipment exploded at Cleveland, Ohio, hospital clinic, filling building with gas.

January 3, 1944—More than 100 lives lost when destroyer Turner blew up at entrance of Lower New York Bay.

October 21, 1944—At least 135 persons killed in explosion and fire in East Ohio Gas Company storage plant at Cleveland.

Trawler Men Call Meetings

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP).—William Rigby, representative of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union, said tonight that trawler fishermen would meet here Saturday to discuss their decision to cease deliveries of fish to dealers not accepting a proposed minimum price agreement.

"No strike is being called," said Mr. Rigby, "if the agreements are not signed the fishermen will probably take a holiday or do something else."

Prince Rupert trawler fishermen will meet Sunday.

Guests Race Flames to Stairs As Fire Sweeps Omineca Hotel

BURNS LAKE, B.C., Feb. 20 (CP).—Smouldering ruins tonight marked the site of the Omineca Hotel, where earlier today guests and staff members fled to the streets for safety as a $25,000 fire swept the premises.

It was the second major hotel fire in British Columbia this week. At Port Alberni, on Vancouver Island, the Somass Hotel was destroyed on Monday night with a loss of $150,000. All guests and staff members escaped without injury in both blazes.

Strenuous efforts by the volunteer fire department and Canadian National Railways section workers prevented spread of the flames in this Northern British Columbia centre today. A heavy fall of snow also helped subdue the fire.

Two adjoining buildings, the Royal Bank and the Government Liquor Store, suffered some damage, but were open for busines today.

Many of the guests were asleep when the fire was discovered in the two-story building, built in 1917, by Milton Conrad, the proprietor. All escaped by stairways before the flames swept to the upper floor.

Hotel guests spent the remainder of the night in the Community Hall, where blankets and bedding were made available.

Burns Lake is 400 miles north of Vancouver.

Family Monopoly Bonds to Be Sold

TOKIO, Feb. 20 (AP).—Taking another step in its long-term program to break the power of Japan's family monopoly corporations, Occupation Headquarters announced today that 1,165,000,000 yen (more than $77,000,000 at the official rate) in securities owned by 56 persons, would be sold to the public.

The individuals affected are members of ten of the major commercial and industrial families of Japan, known as the Zaibatsu.

They will be reimbursed for these personal securities with non-negotiable ten-year Government bonds.

The holding company liquidation commission will handle the transaction. Berkeley Henderson, of Cleveland, Ohio, official observer at the commission meeting, said the sale would affect "some of the wealthiest and most influential people in Japan," and that investigations were continuing with an eye to increasing the list.

LEAVING PEIPING

NANKING, Feb. 20 (AP).—The Communists announced tonight that the Government had closed their only newspaper in Nationalist territory and that the last Communist officials in Peiping would leave Friday, further reducing the remaining tenuous links between the rival Chinese factions.

Plant Announces Staff Reduction

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP). — Air Vice-Marshal J. L. Plant, commander of the Western Air Command, said here today he was "breaking the news" of the reduction of staff to civilian personnel at W.A.C. Headquarters at Jericho Beach, and engaged in the "unpleasant duty" of posting Royal Canadian Air Force personnel.

He would not say what reduction would be made in the staff "already reduced from a wartime peak of 20,000 men and women to 1,200."

Air Vice-Marshal Plant had just returned from Ottawa, where he received the plans for the new reduced setup from Defence Minister Brooke Claxton.

Western Air Command at present is comprised of stations at Sea Island, with transportation flight and an air-rescue flight; Patricia Bay with no flying units; Comox, kept on a "caretaker-maintenance basis which we are keeping up for civil aircraft," and Tofino, 60 miles north of Victoria on the west coast, on a caretaker basis.

MAYOR WELCOMES REPORT

EDMONTON, Feb. 20 (CP). — Mayor Harry Ainlay today welcomed a report from Ottawa that Defence Department was considering setting up an R.C.A.F. command in Edmonton by reducing the present five commands to two. The other command would be at Trenton, Ont.

AUSSIE WAR PRODUCTS

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP).—The Australian telecommunications industry produced £40,000,000 ($130,000,000) worth of radar, radio and signal equipment for the services during the war, according to official figures.

New Folders on Island Resorts To Be Largest Yet Released

Nearly two tons of high-grade glossy paper will be required to print the 35,000 new resort folders soon to be distributed by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

The folders—describing in detail all resorts and tourist centres of Vancouver Island—will be the first printed since the beginning of the war.

Information for the folders has been compiled, and work is now under way on photographs the edition will contain. The folders will be the largest of their kind ever released by the bureau, according to G. I. Warren, commissioner of the organization.

Last year, Mr. Warren reported, the bureau issued 75,000 "blue" folders, providing information about the city and Island; 35,000 resort folders; 20,000 automobile court folders; 10,000 hotel folders, and 20,000 Bluebird windshield stickers.

"Our Bluebird windshield stickers are still popular," Mr. Warren added, "and they are to be found on cars in all parts of North America."

VISITING SEATTLE

Rear Admiral E. R. Mainguy, O.B.E., R.C.N., officer commanding Pacific Coast, will leave Victoria in an R.C.A.F. plane today to visit Rear Admiral G. H. Fort, U.S.N., commandant of 15th Naval District, U.S. Naval Station, Seattle. He will return tonight.

With Admiral Mainguy will be Capt. V. S. Godfrey, O.B.E., R.C.N., the C.O.P.C.'s chief of staff, and Lieut. W. M. Mayo, R.C.N., flag lieutenant.

OPTIMIST CLUB

The Optimist Club of Victoria will meet tonight at 6:30 at the Pacific Club. Reports will be heard from the charter night committee and new members will be received.

ARTISTS LISTED

A register of artists and craftsmen in the province is being compiled by the British Columbia Region of the Federation of Canadian Artists.

The list will include art dealers and picture frame makers. Registration forms may be obtained by sending stamped self-addressed envelopes to Mrs. E. Bakewell, archivist, Federation of Canadian Artists, 3531 West 33rd Avenue, Vancouver.

WEIR TO SPEAK

Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, will address the members of the Laurier Club at a dinner meeting Monday at 6:15 p.m. in Terry's dining-room.

Dr. Weir has chosen as his subject "Liberalism in a Changing World."

CADETS INSPECTED

Lieut. J. N. Robertson, accompanied by his staff, inspected the Cadet Corps of University School on Wednesday and complimented the boys on their fine showing.

Ceremonial drill, company drill, rifle exercises, physical training, signaling, first aid and knotting were carried out.

At the conclusion of the inspection, a half-holiday was granted the boys in appreciation of their determined efforts over the past weeks to make the annual inspection a success.

COMMUNITY CLUB

The Colquitz, Marigold and Strawberry Vale Community Club will hold a meeting on Monday in the Marigold Hall at 8 p.m. Residents are invited to attend and it is hoped that suggestions can be offered pertaining to the educational, recreational and social activities of the centre.

TEEN-AGE DANCE

The Youth Action Movement and the No. 5 Post Civil Defence will hold a teen-age dance tonight at 8 o'clock in the North Ward Community Centre. Moving pictures will be shown.

UNDERGOING REPAIRS

Among large ships undergoing repairs and reconversion at Victoria Machinery Depot Co., Ltd., are the freighters Westview Park and Seaboard Enterprise.

Extensive repairs are needed on both freighters. Crew mess accommodation in Westview Park is to be completely changed. Work will entail a considerable number of structural changes. Both vessels will be drydocked before work is completed.

WILL SHOW SLIDES

A display of kodachrome slides of mountain climbing and skiing will be shown at the Little Centre, 965 Yates Street, tomorrow at 8 p.m. under the auspices of the Victoria Section of the Alpine Club of Canada.

Major Rex Gibson, Edmonton, will be the guest speaker during the showing.

I.O.O.F. HOSTS

The I.O.O.F. will be hosts at a cribbage game to the members of the Eagles and Knights of Pythias tonight at 8 o'clock in the I.O.O.F. Hall, Douglas Street. Out-of-town Odd Fellows have been invited.

ROTARY VISITORS

Twenty-three out-of-town members were guests at the 1,677th regular luncheon meeting of the Victoria Rotary Club yesterday.

They were: H. F. Meadows, Brandon; Charles McDonald, Revelstoke; Bill Johnson, Revelstoke; E. R. Wiley, Estevan; Oscar Peterson, Vancouver; Herbert Morrow, Vancouver; Dr. Atkin, Banff; Hopkin Jenkins, Portland; H. C. Caldicott, Trail; Jim Richards, Drumheller; Dr. W. A. WARD 2 LIBERALS

J. C. Saville was elected president of the Ward 2 Saanich Liberal Association at the annual meeting last night.

Other officers elected were D. Hoare, first vice-president, and A. P. Mitchell, secretary-treasurer. Delegates appointed to the central executive were W. P. Jeune, H. Maxwell, W. N. Smith and Mrs. J. France.

Pacific Coast Surgeons End Session Today

Eighteenth annual convention of the Pacific Coast Surgical Association moves into the fourth and final day at the Empress Hotel this morning.

Mayor Percy E. George yesterday welcomed the organization's 60 members and their wives.

Dr. Homer D. Dudley, Seattle, retiring president, said that work done to rehabilitate amputees of both arms and legs had been greatly speeded by newly-devised artificial limbs developed during the war years. He said that an intensive study of problems of amputees had been made by a national committee.

Other surgeons discussed war experiences and the methods employed to make medicines and techniques perfected during the war quickly available to the public.

Dr. Leroy B. Sherry, Pasadena, Cal., accepted the presidency for the coming year.

Final scientific session of the association will be held today before members leave for the United States.

Membership in the organization is limited to 60 members from California, Oregon, and Washington.

Police Face

Ever since he was taken to hospital in critical condition at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, a police officer has been on duty outside the room in the hope that he would become conscious and tell the name of his assailant.

While teams of doctors and nurses worked over his body until the early hours this morning in a fight to keep alive the faint spark of life which had sustained Hing for more than 24 hours, a Chinese interpreter stood by to aid police.

Up to 2:30 this morning Detective Angus Munro had collected this story from reluctant Chinese friends and relatives:

Victoria-born Hing returned here from Vancouver about six months ago. Last October he purchased a vegetable route from an older Chinese, who has since returned to his homeland. Two weeks ago he moved to the Caledonia Avenue home to live with Tom Gun, another peddler.

It was Tom Gun who found Hing among orange and vegetable boxes just outside the back door and who summoned police, who rushed the man to hospital.

In Hing's overall pocket police found $44 in cash. Lying in a pool of blood they found a notebook and a few pieces of change. The fact that money was found, however, did not lead police to discount a robbery motive. They pointed out that peddlers frequently carry large sums of money in order to make their daily purchases and usually carry larger sums in their inner clothing.

Hing's vegetable truck had been parked in the garage only a few feet from where he was found. He had removed two crates of tomatoes and was apparently about to take them into the house. They were found scattered nearby.

Police believe he was struck down with some heavy instrument as he entered the dark passage leading to his door and never had a chance to fight back.

Neighbors on both sides stated they heard no untoward noise or fighting at any time during the night.

He was last seen on Flagard Street about 5:30 p.m. and apparently left for home about ten minutes later.

Hing had recently joined a Chinese family society, was well liked and had no known enemies, according to his friends.

Residents of Chinatown last night ridiculed the suggestion that the beating could be attributed to any recurrence of "Tong War" and discounted a revenge motive.

The Chinese family society officials last night were talking of raising a large sum as a reward for the capture of the culprit if the man should die.

ADVISES AGAINST HIGHWAY

SEATTLE, Feb. 20 (AP).—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has advised the Pacific Northwest Trade Association that the War Department is not likely to lend its support to proposed construction of a highway connecting the Pacific Northwest with the Alaska route, C. B. Lindeman said today.

NEW SOYA INDUSTRY

CANBERRA (CP).—A soya bean industry is to be established in Australia, and the Government has allotted £10,000 ($33,000) to help development. A growers' and manufacturers' association has been formed in Northern New South Wales.

Scene of Brutal Beating of Chinese —Colonist Photo.

Robbery is believed by city police to have been the motive for the brutal beating Wednesday night of Yuen Hing, 36-year-old Chinese vegetable peddler. Detective Inspector Henry Jarvis, who is in charge of the investigations, looks over the spot where the man's body was found at the rear of 826 Caledonia Avenue. Orange crates and vegetable boxes were stained with blood.

All-Day Closing Issue Reopened At Retail Employees' Meeting

Possibility of a renewal of last year's controversy on all-day Wednesday closing loomed last night, when a petition favoring such a move was circulated at a meeting of the Joint Council of Retail Employees in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

The petition asks for the passage of by-laws which will provide for the closing of any section of the retail trade on Wednesday mornings (and thus provide a full day holiday for store employees each week), when such a closure is requested by not less than 75 per cent of the merchants concerned.

Mayor Percy E. George was first to sign the petition, according to George Wilkinson, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council.

TO CLOSE PETITIONS WITHIN TEN DAYS

Those attending the meeting were asked to hand in the petitions in approximately ten days so the results may be presented at this sitting of the Legislature.

George Johnston, Vancouver, chairman of the Continued All-Day Wednesday Closing Campaign, was the main speaker at the meeting and he strongly criticized the Mainland Citizens' Committee, which opposed the closure.

Mr. Johnston claimed it was the same type of "anonymous organization that caused a panic vote in Victoria."

The Vancouver representative explained that the campaigns in the two cities were different in that one was fighting to keep Wednesday closing and the other was striving to obtain it, but he said the forces fighting against the move were much the same.

He dealt extensively with events that led up to the present situation in Vancouver. He asserted that 90 per cent of the employers were in favor of the closing and 95 per cent of employees.

The speaker named two large firms he said were leading the fight in the Mainland city. One, he said, was merely interested in maintaining its national policy and the other its international policy.

To the argument put forth by some firms that a store cannot do as much business in five days as it can in five and one-half, Mr. Johnston cited statistics he said proved that business in some lines had increased under the five-day week.

T. Denny, a member of the Citizens' Committee and the Retail Merchants' Association, was the only person in the audience to speak against the Wednesday closing.

Saanich Council to Vote Soon On Rezoning at Gordon Head

Saanich Council will vote "within a very short time" on the question of rezoning the Gordon Head area to permit the erection of buildings on the proposed site for a memorial airpark, it was decided at a meeting of the council last night.

A motion by Councillor J. L. Hobbs that the group oppose the rezoning at the conclusion of the meeting failed to obtain support [illegible] cil, almost all of whom stated they should have more time to discuss the issue involved.

The meeting, which was called to hear the arguments of ratepayers in Ward 3 opposing the airpark scheme, drew one of the largest crowds ever to attend a session in the council chambers, and spectators were standing all over the room as well as out in the corridors.

LAWYER APPEARS FOR RATEPAYERS

Ward 3 Ratepayers' Association, largest group present, was represented by H. W. Davey, K.C., who presented an extensive brief to the council listing arguments of his clients in opposition to the rezoning request.

Pointing out that the finances of the proposed airpark "didn't seem to be in a very good condition," Mr. Davey said that "it was not a project any individual taxpayers would put his money in, and its success was by no means guaranteed."

"If the rezoning goes through, and subsequently the airpark fails, it may well be used by other groups to establish a big commercial airport of untold nuisance to the community," he stressed.

"Valuable business and homes may be lost if this project goes through, and it may well spread all across the peninsula," he continued.

The flying, he said, would be over thickly-populated areas of hospitals, schools, orphanages, old men's homes, and accidents would cause great damage to life and property.

William Lawson, district inspector for the Department of Transport, answered technical questions put to him by councillors, and told the meeting that Canadian air regulations were "extremely stiff" and that every precaution would be taken to establish safe flying conditions.

Rex Harvey, Great War flying instructor, who admitted his experience with aircraft was limited to those in operation 30 years ago, appeared for the ratepayers, said that the aircraft in this area would be flying extremely low and would "endanger the property in the area."

Following the discussions, several of the councillors spoke briefly, and Councillor William Kersey stated that "whether we like it or not, the airage is here to stay, and personally I'm going to vote for the rezoning.

"I remember in 1916, the people in this area didn't want a paved road because it would be too hard on the horses. We got the paved road and there are no complaints now. I think we'll find the same situation with the airpark," he said.

Two Remanded For Sentence

Charles Thompson was remanded until this morning for sentence when he appeared in city police court yesterday morning to plead guilty to two charges of false pretences.

He pleaded guilty to incurring indebtedness to a store for an amount of $44 by falsely claiming he had a charge account. He also admitted obtaining from a merchant by a worthless cheque goods valued at $35.

Robert Redgrave was also remanded for sentence until this morning when he pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing gasoline valued at less than $25.

Pleading guilty to a charge of dangerous driving, Peter Hind was fined $40 by Magistrate Henry C. Hall and had his drivers' licence suspended for one month.

BOSTON, England (CP).—Oak piles sunk in 1633 and still sound were used again in construction of this Lincolnshire town's sewage disposal plant.

Legion Makes Statement On Navy Guard

Unalterable opposition was expressed by the Victoria and District Zone Council of the Canadian Legion last night to any policy which might compel naval security guards to join the Corps of Commissionaires in order to retain employment.

A resolution stated that the zone council was "particularly opposed to such a move when the organization collected fees from the men under this form of compulsion, and also contracts to supply their services at less than prevailing rates of pay in the area."

Naval security guards now have a 40-hour week with an 80-cent hourly wage, whereas commissionaires have a 48-hour week with a 60-cent-an-hour scale, the council stated. There are 131 naval security guards at the dockyard, officials said.

The zone council voted in favor of granting a charter to a new branch. Representatives of several branches were appointed to attend a meeting of the May 24 Celebration Committee to ascertain what steps the Legion could take to co-operate in the celebrations.

Next meeting of the zone council will be held on March 20.

Municipal Briefs Of the District

Victoria was asked by the Greater Victoria school board yesterday to boost its share of the school estimates by $2,300.

In a letter to the City Council, T. L. Christie, secretary-treasurer, stated the board had been advised of an error in land assessment figures supplied by Saanich. This meant that the apportioning of school expenses among the municipalities was not correct, Mr. Christie said.

As a result Victoria must now contribute $546,655 instead of the $544,347 previously computed as the city's share.

The city parks committee has decided to grant a request of the Burnside P.-T.A. that a portion of the playground in the Burnside district be graded for use as a softball diamond.

Highland Games Association has been granted the use of Macdonald Park for its annual games July 26, Ald. D. D. McTavish said yesterday.

The Round Table Association has given the parks department a sun dial to be placed in Beacon Hill Park.

Ald. McTavish, parks committee chairman, said yesterday the parks committee had never contemplated a $25,000 aviary for tropical birds. Native Sons of British Columbia and other organizations have written letters to the department protesting such a plan, he said.

Forest Policy

Suggested amendments to the British Columbia Forest Act laid before the Legislature this week by the Government would go some distance towards implementing the Sloan report. How soon they can be applied, however, is another matter. Only a week ago the public was informed that British Columbia shippers had entered into negotiation with the United Kingdom for specific stocks of cut and dressed lumber which together with other requirements would involve a combined cut of 2,900,000,000 board feet during 1947.

That is about what the wartime production was, at or nearly three billion board feet per annum. It has been demonstrated, meanwhile, that the natural regeneration of all British Columbia timber stands amounts to approximately 1,500,000,000 board feet; or about half the continuing rate of production in these times. Obviously, therefore, it will require some time before this province can put its timber operations on a truly sustained yield basis.

That is not said to embarrass or to decry, on the contrary, British Columbia must one day come to a more modified cut or its timber will not last. Most things worth doing begin with cautious steps. The proposed amendments in the Forest Act are, in the main, a pronounced advance over anything that British Columbia has found it possible to do previously. If through the years in co-operation with industry the Government can implement the full spirit of the Sloan report, that certainly will be a contribution to generations yet to come.

The time, moreover, is ripe for such a beginning. Citizens today understand that timber is natural wealth, with a rate of growth measured only over long periods of time. To deplete that wealth without its replacement would bring the Province to the point where the cupboard was bare. In so far as it leads in the direction of forest-management, the suggested measure is a good one, and well worth an earnest, conscientious trial.

Surprising Refusal

The surprise expressed by members of the City Council over rejection by the Saanich Council of a proposal to have a commissioner study the facts about amalgamation, will find an echo among many citizens of that municipality as well as of the city. It will be a disappointment to forward-looking elements who sense rightly that a unified administration of the Greater Victoria area would remove many of the handicaps under which this collective community operates at present. At its least valuation, the rejection of the proposal is astonishing since it did not commit the Saanich Council in the slightest degree.

All the plan seeks to do is to gather the facts concerning unification for the information of the public, so that the people may be in a position to speak their minds on this matter. There appears to be an unfortunate tendency to exclude the citizens from consideration. Most of them have been ready to vote on the principle of amalgamation for some time, but not one of the four municipal councils concerned has thought fit to put the question. In the case of Saanich the present reversal of official opinion is at strange variance with its request last year for a similar study of amalgamation. It was stated then that internal Saanich problems could not be settled until after the amalgamation issue was determined. These internal problems still remain.

It may be that the Saanich Council did not appreciate fully just what was being asked, and that clarification of the suggestion might cause the decision to be reconsidered. It is to be hoped so. There would be only good and no harm from a joint practical inquiry into amalgamation and what it would entail. The people of Saanich would still be able to accept or reject any referendum that was then put. In any case, lack of co-operation from one municipality should not deter Victoria City from proceeding to consult with other municipalities on the subject. Amalgamation is the most pressing need of the whole region.

Shift in India

In the absence of any explanation by Prime Minister Attlee, the recall of Viscount Wavell from India is certain to invite the conclusion that the Viceroy is at variance with the British Government in the steps now to be taken towards Indian independence in view of the deadlock between the Congress Party and the Moslem League. Although pressed by Mr. Churchill to explain the substitution for Viscount Wavell of Viscount Mountbatten, Mr. Attlee declined in the House of Commons yesterday to amplify his announcement of the change.

Mr. Attlee's action in fixing a definite date, June, 1948, for the transfer of power from British to responsible Indian hands may be a bid for a unity hitherto lacking between Moslems and Hindus, and the absence of which has led to what he terms a situation "fraught with danger." The Moslem League's refusal to take part in the Constituent Assembly, while retaining membership in the Interim Government, has created a constitutional impasse and prevented the drafting of a constitution applicable to British India as a whole.

Beyond stating that unless a "fully representative" Assembly writes a new constitution by June, 1948, Great Britain will have to consider then to whom the powers of a central government should be handed, the British Prime Minister did not indicate the nature of the transfer of sovereignty he may have in mind. Control might go, he intimated, to one or more existing governments, local or national, or in some other way not yet defined. There was an obvious plea to both Moslems and Hindus in his statement that "all parties should sink their differences" to be ready for the change next year. Unfortunately, recent history does not offer any immediate hope for a reconciliation of the bitterly conflicting attitudes of the two main Indian political parties.

Mr. Attlee made it clear that the assumption of home rule a year hence by some Indian hands will not affect the separate states, which compose almost half the area of India, and which come under the protection of the British Government. Many of these states enjoy enlightened government by native princes, in concurrence with British advisers, and their future status in relation to an independent India is something that remains to be determined.

Viscount Wavell will return to the United Kingdom after having discharged a most difficult task with exemplary patience. Ever since the day in 1940 when he took the offensive in Egypt against large numerical odds, this famous soldier has been given a succession of assignments of the most onerous character, and to each he has brought a mind of unusual ability. It is mainly to his credit that negotiations concerning Indian home rule have reached their present stage without open and widespread conflict. In succeeding him, Viscount Mountbatten follows in the footsteps of one of the most respected Viceroys.

Down to Doodling?

We have always suspected there was something strange about the income tax form which came into being in the war years in Canada, without much direct assistance from Parliament. Strange things began to happen to the taxpayers. They were arbitrarily declared "single," childless and so forth, to fit within a blanket schedule of taxation on the ready-reference principle. We did not suspect, however, that the tax collector would ever resort to doodling at the top of the form in red ink, and yet that has come to pass. What is the taxpayer supposed to do—doodle back?

The "T.1—Special" income tax forms for 1945 began the strange practice. The top line of the tax form was composed of a date, the morse code letters "L.D.N.", and the date repeated—all in red ink. We wondered about that superscription in a two-color form. What did it mean? What, we asked ourselves, did the letters L.D.N. imply? Was it "Long Distance Negotiation"? Was it "Lay Down Nicely?"

This year, however, the design for doodling has been changed, and one is no longer left in doubt. On the same form, "T.1—Special," for 1946 there appears as a top line in red ink a neat design of triple minuses, in series with a brace or two of broad arrows, reversed. The red ink, the triple minus signs and the broad arrows are all highly suggestive. It will be remarkable if the distracted taxpayers do not doodle back. The world loves to doodle. But what we would like to know earnestly is does it really pay the Treasury to doodle on its tax forms in two colors, while two-color printing is so expensive?

Seen in Passing

First bills before the Legislature this term include one to set up a British Columbia Department of Fisheries, to join the existing Departments of Mines, Forestry and Agriculture. The move is a sound one. If it leads, as it should, to British Columbia having a good deal more say in the development of this basic natural resource that, too, will be timely. Another bill declares "the war" will end at June 30, 1947. One trusts that this is prophetic. Peace is long overdue.

"Into the Silence . . ."

Into the silence of the empty night
I went, and took my scorned heart with me.
And all the thousand eyes of heaven were bright:
But Sorrow came and led me back to thee.

I turned my weary eyes towards the sun,
Out of the leaden east like smoke came he.
I laughed and said, "The night is past and done",
But Sorrow came and led me back to thee.

I turned my face towards the rising moon,
Out of the south she came most sweet to see,
She smiled upon my eyes that loathed the moon;
But Sorrow came and led me back to thee.

I bent my eyes upon the summer land,
And all the painted fields were ripe for me,
And every flower nodded to my hand;
But Sorrow came and led me back to thee.

O Love! O Sorrow! O desired Despair!
I turned my feet towards the boundless sea,
Into the dark I go and heed not where,
So that I come again at last to thee.

DAYLIGHT SAVING

Time, says the Encyclopaedia Britannica, is the general term for the experience of duration. We had an idea it was something like that but felt moved to check on it when we noticed the suggestion that adoption of daylight saving measures was playing havoc with the sun.

All the other authorities we have consulted refrain from confusing the sun with man's efforts to get more of its rays. Apparently the sun is above all such human devices as clocks and sandglasses. It shines imperturbably without fail, even if on occasion its beneficences are hidden from city streets and country farms by other elements of nature.

So the sun may be left out of any discussion about advancing the time-pieces by which men govern their movements. It is beyond mortal reach, which is probably a very good thing indeed.

As for meddling with the clock, well there is good precedent. Julius Caesar was not above setting limits to the experience of duration, in order to harness the passage of this thing we call time to suit human needs. And what that good Roman did surely equally good Victorians may do, to suit the same sort of need.

INSTRUMENT OF CONVENIENCE

Clocks, you see, are very like language in this respect. Words did not cease to grow and change just because someone invented a dictionary, although there are pedants who would have you believe this to be so. And a clock, after all, is simply an instrument of human convenience, like language.

Few of us can be relativists, and at home with the philosophy that all time is one, as in those higher spheres of thought it may be. Nor are we able like "Alley Oop" to jump from one age to another and take full advantage of this fourth dimension. Ordinary earthbound individuals are forced to divide time into divisions, so that they might get to the supper-table at the right moment, or catch the bus they nearly always miss.

The clock, then, is merely a yardstick of measurement without which man would be lost. There is no serious reason to suppose that by advancing the hour hand any sacred principle is involved. The earth will keep going around the sun just as usual, one presumes.

CONFUSION ON FARM

Nor do we suppose the cows and chickens will object, although we are always told that to anticipate the experience of duration by sixty minutes throws the farm into confusion. Unfortunately animal and man have never established spoken communication with one another, so we are unable to verify this at first hand. The shift that daylight saving brings into focus has to do with persons, not with their cattle, it appears.

We are a trifle surprised that the opponents of daylight saving do not suggest an easier method of bringing about this much desired circumstance. It never seems to strike them that if everyone pushed his daily activity ahead an hour, by going to work that much earlier, the extra hour's daylight would be forthcoming. The effect would be exactly the same, of course, except that the clock would remain sacrosanct.

But on reflection we doubt whether that would be any easier after all. Lacking the unified direction that Ottawa could give were its high mandarins prepared to take note of the plebian will, the adoption of daylight saving seems difficult of general accomplishment, but the persuasion of business and industry to set its starting time an hour ahead would be even more so. And the confusion would not then be confined to the farm.

SAANICH LEAD

Seemingly it takes an official edict to enable people to enjoy more sunshine—or shadow—no matter how much they have proclaimed that they like the experience.

Saanich Council have given a lead by approving the measure for this coming Summer, albeit the motion just scraped home by one vote. But if when relevant a mile is as good as a mile, one vote is as equally effective as a dozen.

The municipality is to be commended. Here is a lead for the other three local governing bodies. A stitch, they say, when threaded at the proper moment saves nine. The pertinent saving for Greater Victorians this Summer is daylight, and three more needles scrolled circumspectly and correctly will put it beyond all doubt.

Then there will be no risk of the Gilbertian situation that threatened until the eleventh hour last year when this community seemed headed for a real test in relativity—four-dimensional time.

It was "Don Quixote" who said: "There's a time for some things, and a time for all things; a time for great things and a time for small things." This would seem to be the time to make sure of daylight saving time, otherwise of Greater Victoria this Summer it may be said that "time is out o' joint."

Displaced Europeans Are Afraid to Go Home

The writer, who is president of the Louisville Courier-Journal and of the Louisville Times, has returned recently from a trip to Germany.

By BARRY BINGHAM
North American Newspaper Alliance

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 20.—Two big misconceptions block much American thinking on the displaced persons of Europe. One is that most of them are Communists. The other is that most of them are Jews.

The real facts give an utterly different answer.

Official records show that only about 20 per cent of the D.P.'s are Jews. The largest group among the 80 per cent who are Christians belong to the Roman Catholic faith, followed by Protestants and Greek Orthodox.

The idea of Communism among the D.P.'s is even wider of the mark. Of all the displaced persons of Europe, more than half are Poles, another 20 per cent are Balts (from Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia), and 5 per cent are Yugoslavs.

Why won't these people go back to their homes? For the simple reason that they are violently anti-Communist. The Poles face a government at Warsaw which is strongly under Soviet domination; the Yugoslavs feel they would get short shrift under Tito's regime at Belgrade. Both groups fear persecution, exile and possibly death for their political beliefs if they should go back to their native lands.

The case of the Balts is even more extreme. Their three small countries have been completely absorbed by the U.S.S.R. They would have to become Soviet citizens if they should ever move homeward. Much as they hate the sterile life of the D.P. camps, they cannot and will not accept the alternative of surrendering themselves to the U.S.S.R.

There are roughly 1,000,000 of these homeless people left in Europe, most of them crowded into the American and British zones of Germany and Austria.

The two Allied powers have repatriated over 5,000,000 D.P.'s since the end of the war. Those were people who wanted to go home, who had been dragged into Germany as slave laborers and who only lived to get back to their own countries. Small numbers are still heading homeward, but a hard core of about 850,000 D.P.'s will be left.

The great majority of them are Christians with anti-Communist records, who dread political persecution at home. The minority of not more than one-fifth are Jews, who fear religious persecution in their homelands.

Figures are cold and impersonal things. It is valuable to know, however, that among the 1,000,000-odd D.P.'s there are 572,000 Poles, 190,000 Balts, 51,000 Yugoslavs, 11,000 Czechs and a smattering of a dozen more racial groups. It is well to remember, too, that 52 per cent of these people are women and children, and that 17 per cent are under 16 years of age.

Thinking of them still in terms of statistics, it is costing the United States Government about $300,000,000 a year to support those who are in our zones of Germany and Austria. We have about half of the total group. The money we are spending on them is doing nothing but keep them alive, which is a dubious favor on our part. Life without hope is a grim commodity.

One look at a displaced persons' camp has the uncomfortable effect of turning dead statistics into live human beings.

These are not brute beasts who can be kept indefinitely in a corral, but men, women and children who want to live a normal life of their own. They have been marking time since the end of the war, nearly two years ago, living in slightly renovated concentration camps, waiting for a door to open to them somewhere in the world.

They are a cross-section of humanity. Some are highly intellectual college professors, lawyers, doctors; many are artisans and small tradesmen; a large number are peasants whose knowledge and experience is on the land.

America is not going to force these people to go home, to what they believe would be persecution and death. If we adopted such a policy, it would be greeted by mass suicides. We surely are not going to let them stay on indefinitely in the camps, where they cannot produce their own livelihood and can only act as a continual drain on the American taxpayer.

BACON POLICY

Sir,—When the Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, visited Western Canada a few weeks ago he pleaded with farmers everywhere to raise more hogs on account of the tremendous shortage of pork, bacon, and lard for the last few years. Have the farmers lost their memories? I don't think so. Let us examine the records and find out who is to blame for this unwarranted shortage.

When the Hon. Mr. Gardiner appealed to the farmers of Canada to raise all the hogs they could; that he had just contracted with Britain to supply large quantities of bacon and lard. The response was 100 per cent. Our British Columbia Government arranged to assist farmers by sending an expert to Alberta to purchase large numbers of sows and also assisted with freight rates in bringing them here. Every farmer who could purchased a number of those sows. Production reached an all-time high, and there was pork in abundance for about two years, when something suddenly happened.

"Flash," from the same Mr. Gardiner: "Cut down your hog production, I have failed to arrange a second contract with Britain. Sell your sows, especially your young stock." Everywhere farmers' plans were upset. They sold their pigs by the thousands, markets were glutted, packers were swamped. Young pigs were sold at one sale Up-Island for $2.50 each, the same sized pigs selling before the slump at from $4.00 to $6.00 each. Then came another "flash" from Mr. Gardiner: "Hold on to your breeding stock, I have made a second deal with Britain. Raise all the hogs you can, and I will pay you a bonus of $2.00 per 100 pounds on all you can raise."

With the same breath he offered a 15c bonus on every bushel of barley sold to elevators. Consequently Prairie farmers are not raising hogs. Now if this method is the result of sound reasoning some of us have another name for it. Let no one allow themselves to be fooled into believing that the present system of rationing and control is going to solve this vital problem. What we need, and must have, is greater production, and there is only one way to get it, make this business profitable.

If the Dominion Government is so anxious to get us to raise hogs, why don't they declare income tax exemptions on this business? If they want this shortage increased why don't they make it illegal to butcher a hog less than 275 pounds live weight, for home consumption, which would easily double our weight of pork and lard without increasing the number of hogs? Many people believe if restrictions were lifted entirely there would be an abundance of pork and lard as heretofore, as hogs can be marketed quicker than other livestock, and the law of supply and demand would very soon regulate prices.

If the Government is determined to hold the present system of controls, ceilings on pork must certainly be lifted so that hog raisers will not have to work for nothing. Remember, there is no ceiling price on livestock. But supposing you bought a pig or pigs using your own judgment as to price, and after they were butchered, the Prices Board found out that you had paid over the ceiling price of pork, you are then hauled into court and fined? What a set-up. Is it any wonder that free men are beginning to stiffen their backs against such dictatorship. Where are we heading for? If you are one of those that adopts a wait and see attitude, you won't have long to wait.

FOREST ENGINEERS

Relationship between state and private forestry, and the status of forestry as a professional will be topics discussed at the 39th annual convention of the Canadian Society of Forest Engineers, which opens February 26 in the Hotel Vancouver.

Works and plans of the forestry branch of the United Nations will be the subject of an address given the convention by D. Roy Cameron, Dominion Government Forester, Ottawa.

Coal Production On Island Down

Vancouver Island coal production decreased by 4,422 long tons in January, and British Columbia production as a whole by 16,900 tons, as compared with output in January, 1946, according to statistics issued by the Department of Mines yesterday.

Provincial output totaled 117,317 long tons, and Island output 45,562. No. 10 Mine at South Wellington was the only major producer on the Island to show an increase, boosting its output from 19,229 to 19,561 tons.

Nicola - Princeton and Northern District mines showed slight improvement in production, but East Kootenay dropped from 78,567 to 65,497 tons.

The crucial question about today's deal is whether South's bidding or play was worse!

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♦	Pass	1 ♥	Pass
2 NT	Pass	3 ♣	Pass
3 NT	Dbl.	Pass	Pass
Rdbl.	Pass	Pass	Pass

It is worth observing that West was "playing with dynamite" when he doubled three no trump. He could hardly know that he would find such remarkable help in East's hand, particularly for the spade suit that he intended to lead. Then the outcome was as lucky for East-West as it was just and fitting for South, who might have given some thought to his weakness in spades. Later, South explained that his partner's club bid had made it appear that five tricks could be expected in that suit alone, but this was a mere supposition. Besides, five clubs (if they were there) plus the spade and diamond aces would not total nine tricks!

Having made a redouble that was a sheer gamble, South proceeded to play in the same philosophy. West led the spade deuce, and East's seven-spot forced declarer's ace. South, hoping to get at least one club trick home before running diamonds, laid down the club queen, but West was not slow in putting up the ace. West then cashed the king and queen of spades, and declarer, convinced that the heart ace must be in West's hand, for his double, discarded two hearts from dummy. East carefully played high spades, and when West's spade six was underplayed by East's four—dummy discarded another heart, of all cards!—it was not hard for West to see that his partner, having deliberately blocked the spade suit, wanted a shift to hearts. The heart queen through dummy raised the penalty to 2,400 points!

Clashes Between Counsel Punctuate Rate Hearings

OTTAWA, Feb. 20 (CP).—Claims of the West that it pays higher freight rates than the East were examined today before the Board of Transport Commissioners in its hearings into the railways' application for rate increases.

C. H. Locke, British Columbia counsel, bore down heavily on this angle as he cross-examined C. E. Jefferson, freight traffic manager of the C.P.R., but the rail official said he could not make a blanket statement on the question.

The examination, conducted amid sharp and sometimes acrimonious clashes between provincial and railway counsel, also brought from Mr. Locke the declaration that British Columbia would protest any further increases in its "mountain differential" rates, which now are 25 per cent above Prairie freight charges.

The C.P.R.'s freight chief told the board that the C.P.R.'s shortage of rolling stock was being aggravated by a change in the character of traffic, resulting in a decine in the average number of tons hauled in loaded freight cars per mile.

This average had fallen from 33.7 in 1945 to 30.8 in 1946, with the result that more cars were necessary to carry a given tonnage.

For each ton that the figure dropped in 1947, he said, it would cause a gross freight revenue decline of $6,000,000 from the $223,500,000 estimated by the C.P.R. as its gross freight income for this year on the basis of present rates.

Battling between the counsel started when C. F. H. Carson, representing the Railway Association of Canada, sought to introduce a chart showing comparative freight rates on coal and coke in Canada and the United States since 1920.

Col. J. L. Ralston, Maritimes counsel, objected to including U.S. figures, and eventually the board disallowed them.

Another skirmish developed when Mr. Locke sought to have the railway produce figures showing an estimated allocation of expenditures between freight and passenger services on its lines in Maine and Vermont.

B.C. COUNSEL MAKES PROTEST

The C.P.R., which previously had advised the board its accounting system did not provide such a breakdown, protested the introduction of this matter on the claim that it was irrelevant to the Canadian application and that it was made on an arbitrary formula laid down by the U.S. Interstate Commerce Commission.

However, the board ordered the C.P.R. to produce the I.C.C. reports for the last ten years, Chief Commissioner J. A. Cross ruling they were to be handed only to the board, which would determine their relevancy.

The British Columbia counsel protested this course, declaring he wanted to see the documents and adding: "They've been telling us for years in British Columbia that they're losing money, and I want to find out just where."

It was strange, Mr. Locke continued, that railway counsel kept reiterating they "had nothing to hide," but objected when the production of documents was asked for.

"The people of British Columbia are going to think the attitude of the C.P.R. very strange," he declared.

Mr. Carson said the U.S. documents had no bearing on the present case.

"We want to know where they are losing money on every part of their operations," Mr. Locke insisted. "Why should British Columbia shippers be made to pay for losses elsewhere?"

He wished, he said, to protest against "any increase in freight rates the necessity for which is caused by losses in passenger operations or other branches."

During the session, in response to an earlier order of the board, the C.P.R. produced exhibits showing an estimated breakdown of expenditures between freight and other departments for 1946, but with an appended note saying the figures were "purely statistical" and could not be regarded as "an acceptable measure of the respective expenses."

With this qualification, the exhibits showed railway freight working expenses of $199,763,000 for 1945, against freight earnings of $232,938,000. Passenger service working expenses were placed at $80,291,000, while passenger service earnings were $83,181,000.

The railway explained only 30 per cent of working expenses were directly separable in the company's accounts between the two classes of services. The remaining 70 per cent had been incurred for rail services in general and could only be apportioned on "an arbitrary and theoretical basis."

Mr. Locke questioned Mr. Jefferson closely upon the C.P.R.'s inability to allocate expenses accurately.

"You fix rates for the railway, and you don't know the cost of what you are selling?" he asked.

"That's right," Mr. Jefferson replied. "It's impossible to determine it."

QUESTIONS EAST-WEST RATES

Turning to the question of whether or not Western rates were higher than in the East, Mr. Locke asked if it were not true that the "vast majority" of commodity rates in Ontario and Quebec were lower than in the West.

"That all depends on what commodities you are referring to," Mr. Jefferson said. He added he could not answer the question in general terms.

In answer to a further question, he conceded truck competition had caused the C.P.R. to lower rates in Quebec and Ontario, but this also had been done in British Columbia. Some British Columbia commodity rates were lower than Ontario-Quebec charges.

"Can you mention one?" Mr. Locke added.

"Not here," the witness replied.

Under questioning about the mountain differential, Mr. Jefferson said this special charge affected about 15 per cent of the C.P.R.'s traffic in British Columbia, according to the last study made in 1927.

Mr. Locke suggested the percentage was larger now, but the freight chief said he thought the ratio had not increased, though the total of freight volume had risen.

Mr. Locke challenged figures presented by the C.P.R. as its estimates of expected volume of traffic in various commodities for this year. He was especially critical of a forecast drop of some $1,300,000 in revenue from wood shipments.

As the result of last year's three-month strike in British Columbia, there would be a "vastly increased" production of lumber products in that province this year, he suggested.

"Maybe production, but it's shipments I go by," said Mr. Jefferson.

During the day, the board received submissions from three Saskatchewan organizations calling for the holding of regional hearings, which the railways have objected to. The organizations were the Retail Merchants' Association of that province, which asked for a sitting in Saskatoon; the Associated Boards of Trade of Saskatchewan, and the United Farmers of Canada.

The "Black Angel" Is Sentenced

DRESSED in an expensive-looking fur jacket, Carmen Maria Mory, 40 (centre), is shown as she heard the Hamburg court trying war criminals sentence her to death by hanging. The woman, a Swiss-born international spy, was known as the "Black Angel of Ravensbruck," and her sentence was the result of the court finding her guilty of complicity in the Ravensbruck camp deaths.

Victoria Jobless Figures Rise Says Labor Department Report

OTTAWA, Feb. 20 (CP). — Though seasonal inactivity hit Canadian employment hard in January, the Labor Department reported today this appeared "merely the lull before a sharp rise in industrial activity and employment in the Spring."

In its January manpower report, the department said the worst weather conditions in years hampered primary industry, construction and transportation. Shortage of electric power hit production in some areas and material shortages formed bottlenecks in many industries.

Unplaced applicants registered with National Employment Service totaled 196,000 at February 6, a rise of 31,000 since January 2. However, this was 47,000 below the total for a year ago, and it also appeared the peak unemployment for this Winter had been reached.

At February 6, there were 21,000 unfilled vacancies as compared with 90,000 on January 2 and 84,000 a year ago.

Ontario had 54,000 unplaced applicants and 28,000 vacancies. Applicants increased because of continued shortages of materials in most manufacturing industries, plus usual Winter slackness in transportation, construction and service.

On the Prairies, there were 38,000 jobless and 9,000 jobs. Severe weather conditions caused layoffs in construction and transportation, while the grain trade was hampered by the boxcar shortage. Layoffs in packing houses were caused by smaller livestock receipts caused by the weather.

In the Pacific region, there were 38,000 unplaced applicants and 3,000 unfilled vacancies. Employment opportunities were at their lowest point in some time, and no general improvement was expected until mid-March. Supply scarcities and uncertain markets were affecting the demand for labor in most manufacturing plants. Construction was expected to pick up.

Unplaced applicants and unfilled vacancies (in brackets) in Western National Employment Service offices February 6, were:

Calgary, 4,050 (409); Edmonton, 4,510 (641); Regina, 2,744 (454); Saskatoon, 2,281 (278); Winnipeg, 12,031 (2,173); Fort William, 1,050 (892); New Westminster, B.C., 3,189 (209); Vancouver, 16,315 (1,735); Victoria, 2,310 (532).

Nationalists Welcome King

CAPETOWN, Feb 20 (Reuters) — The King and Queen and the two Princesses today received a tremendous welcome from a cheering crowd of 16,000 when they entered Stellenbosch, great Nationalist (Opposition) stronghold 25 miles east of Capetown.

The crowd, including university students, sang "God Save the King."

It was the most amazing scene of the tour so far.

There was no question of the enthusiasm of the people as they cheered and clapped when the Royal family stepped from their automobile.

All the Nationalists tonight were discussing the visit. One old Nationalist member said: "I never expected to see the King of England cheered here. It is wonderful!"

At Paarl, 26 miles from Capetown, the local leader of the Ossewabrandwag ("Ox-Wagon Guard"), extreme anti-British party, Councillor ("General") W. H. Marsh and his wife were presented to the Royal visitors outside the town hall.

They afterwards sat with the Royal family at a decorated picnic table for tea and Councillor Marsh told a correspondent: "My personal view is that the Royal visit has already done much good."

Marsh was asked: "Are you content to recognize the King as King of South Africa?"

He replied: "Now that I have met the King I would like him to cable London that he is staying here."

Tomorrow the King is to open the South African Parliament.

'Election Day' Is Under Way For District

The strain and excitement of "election day" will be evident in high schools throughout Greater Victoria today as students vie for civic offices for "Future Citizens' Day" to be held in Victoria on March 1.

The city government and the three municipalities will be taken over by youthful leaders and civic officials will explain to the students the intricacies of their positions.

More than 300 "future citizens" will take part in the event. Newspapers, transportation lines, department stores and numerous other lines of business will be invaded by the students.

The project is being sponsored by the Youth Action Committee.

Civic and business leaders throughout the city are keen about the project and have expressed willingness to make the venture a complete success.

Fishery Products Price Considered

OTTAWA, Feb. 20 (CP).—Fisheries Minister Bridges said today in the Commons that "active consideration" is being given to requests that the Prices Support Act be proclaimed as far as fishery products are concerned. The act fixes a floor price for various food products.

Replying to M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. Leader, Mr. Bridges said Manitoba and Saskatchewan had requested proclamation of the act.

INCREASING THOUSANDS DISCOVER GENTLE, SOOTHING RELIEF
For UPSET Stomach • Nervous Indigestion • Heartburn • After-eating distresses • Simple Diarrhoea

Every day more people discover with happy surprise how gentle Pepto-Besmal is in relieving a stomach that is upset through over-eating or from eating something which makes a stomach "talk back."

NEVER UPSET AN UPSET STOMACH
Never add to the distress of an upset stomach with harsh treatment. Avoid the use of drastic antacids and physics. A sick stomach should be treated gently. Use gentle, soothing Pepto-Besmal.

• HOW YOU SHOULD TREAT AN UPSET STOMACH
Stomachs are tender organs in the body—and when they are upset they should be treated tenderly. Upset stomachs are usually irritated and, therefore, the treatment for upset stomach should be gentle. Pepto-Besmal spreads a soothing coating over the irritated stomach and intestinal walls. Pepto-Besmal quiets an excited stomach.

• WHAT CAUSES UPSET STOMACH?
Common upset stomach is caused by irregular living. Sometimes it may be over-eating, or eating ill-prepared, hasty meals. There may be other causes: too-late, too-rich, too-much, nervous excitement, overtiredness or excesses in smoking and drinking all can be the cause of an upset stomach.

• WHAT PEPTO-BESMAL DOES
Pepto-Besmal spreads a soothing coating over stomach and intestinal walls to quiet and restore peace to an angry stomach. It is effective for such forms of stomach upset as nervous indigestion, heartburn, simple diarrhoea. Pepto-Besmal retards the formation of gas, sweetens sour stomach and relieves nausea.

• WHAT IS PEPTO-BESMAL?
Pepto-Besmal is a stomach-soothing preparation of a high pharmaceutical standard, developed with greatest care to assure relief from common forms of upset stomach. It contains Bismuth Subsalicylate, Subd. Zinc Peroxide-carbonate and Methyl salicylate in a demulcent base. All these are ingredients which your druggist or doctor will tell you are mild and soothing to a stomach and intestinal tissues. These ingredients have been compounded to make a truly pleasant-tasting formula to relieve common forms of upset stomach. Pepto-Besmal is neither a laxative nor an antacid.

• WHY PEPTO-BESMAL MUST BE GOOD.
For forty years in the United States, every applicable grace of pharmaceutical research has been incorporated into the compounding of Pepto-Besmal. Spotless laboratories in the home of Pepto-Besmal are making tests constantly to assure uniformity and high standards. Through years of constant improvements, the makers of Pepto-Besmal know that their vast experience and great care in maintaining the highest standards for their product have been factors which have brought relief to millions of upset stomach sufferers.

• WHO CAN USE PEPTO-BESMAL?
Pepto-Besmal is of such a high standard of pharmaceutical excellence that it's use is not restricted to adults. Because of the soothing properties of Pepto-Besmal, children or adults find equal relief from common forms of upset stomach. Pepto-Besmal contains no sugar and, therefore, can be used by diabetics without fear of upsetting the carbohydrate (sugar-making) balance of their systems.

• WHO IS USING PEPTO-BESMAL?
Every year more than ten million bottles of Pepto-Besmal are being used. Whole families have come to rely upon this soothing, pleasant-tasting formula to get comfort from simple forms of upset stomach. The high rate of public acceptance of Pepto-Besmal has made it the fastest-growing preparation of its kind. This can be assurance that Pepto-Besmal can and does meet the requirements for which it was compounded.

• A SPECIAL THOUGHT FOR CHILDREN
Too often giving children "something out of a bottle" is a struggle. But children have had many experiences with "nasty" medicines. Pepto-Besmal has been made an inviting pink color—and Pepto-Besmal has a pleasant taste. Pepto-Besmal is safe and effective to quiet upset stomach in children.

• WHO ARE THE MAKERS OF PEPTO-BESMAL?
Pepto-Besmal is made by the Norwich Pharmical Company. For more than forty years, Norwich has been a leader in its special field of pharmaceutical development. Every employee is a specialist. Through extensive programs of research and tests of products in the making, Pepto-Besmal and other Norwich products are always uniform and of highest standard.

Three sizes at your druggist, 50c, $1.00, $1.50 or by the dose at his fountain.
If you don't get prompt relief consult your physician.

Need for More Positive Action Says Mrs. Nancy Hodges

"THERE is a great need for more positive action and women should strengthen the potential power that lies in their hands," Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A., told delegates to the Provincial Council of Women annual meeting and guests in an address, "Challenge to Council Women," following a luncheon held at the Y.W.C.A. yesterday.

"Women are really missing a great opportunity if they do not concentrate on problems concerned with women and children which, in the long run, affect everyone," she stated. The rising divorce rate, the [illegible] of moral standards and the growing crime record, particularly among the youth, she cited as direct challenges to the problem-solving powers of organized women.

Passing resolutions for presentation to governments might have their place, she said, but would not solve these problems. Unless resolutions are backed by sound public opinion and followed up with positive action, they might be termed a waste of time and effort, she stated.

Taking the matter of salacious literature and undesirable films as an example, she told her audience that any banning of such material only served to boost the sale of one and patronage of the other.

They would soon be off the market if the public refused to buy such literature and pay to see such films and urged that members work to educate the youth and others to the attitude.

MRS. A. CARMICHAEL

MRS. CARMICHAEL RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

Mrs. Alfred Carmichael was re-elected president by acclamation at the opening session of the meeting held in the morning. Mrs. Fitzwater, of Kamloops, was elected first vice-president, and Mrs. H. V. Collins, of North Vancouver, second vice-president.

Mrs. A. E. Hopkins presented the corresponding secretary's report, and Rev. F. A. Springborn took the devotional period.

Following the morning session a luncheon was held at which Mrs. Carmichael presided. Mrs. Charles A. Banks, wife of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, and honorary president of the Provincial Local Council of Women, was seated at the head table with Mayor Percy E. George, who brought greetings from the city; Mrs. Bertha Parsons, president, Local Council of Women; Mrs. Paul Smith, of Vancouver, past provincial president; Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A.; Mrs. Thomas Bingham, immediate past president; Dr. Olga Jardine, past provincial president; Miss Ruth MacLean; Rev. F. A. Springborn, Mrs. J. A. Mahood, Mrs. G. Brinacombe, of Vancouver, second vice-president, and Mrs. A. E. Hopkins.

SUPPORT LEGISLATION TO CONTINUE CONTROLS

At the afternoon session, following a short address by Mr. George Matthews, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association of British Columbia, the meeting decided to support legislation being proposed which would continue Government wartime controls in regard to consumer credit policies for another year, during which time the groups affected would have opportunity of drawing up legislation mutually satisfactory to all.

They also decided to support a request for clarification of the act which would enable municipal councils to name all closing hours for places of business in their own localities.

Prior to reports from Local Councils of each district, covering the highlights of the work during the year, Mrs. Paul Smith gave a short talk regarding drug addicts, stating that in her opinion it would be futile to spend a great deal of money for an institution in an effort to cure addicts. She stated that heavy penalties should be imposed on drug peddlers and that efforts should be concentrated on stopping the illegal importation of drugs.

Mrs. Smith also asked the Council to support the controlled Government decontrol program until danger of serious inflation was over.

Mrs. Bradley Regent Of Beacon Hill Juniors

H.M.C.S. Beacon Hill Junior Chapter I.O.D.E. held their annual meeting recently at the home of the retiring regent, Mrs. M. A. Kent. Mrs. A. W. Bradley was elected regent for the ensuing year and other officers elected were Jean Carter, first vice-regent; Margaret Jean Gordon, second vice-regent; Helen Stenseth, secretary; Dorothy Hallewell, educational secretary; Dorothy Irvine, Echoes secretary; Iola Gordon, treasurer, and Rita Price, standard bearer.

Special guests at the meeting included Mrs. A. H. C. Phipps, Mrs. P. E. Corby, Mrs. J. L. Ford, and Mrs. D. W. Carter.

Dorothy Irvine, secretary, reported that a tea had been held at headquarters and that members had modeled at a fashion show. Gifts were presented to two adopted children at the Solarium at Easter, Hallowe'en and Christmas.

Donations were made to the Queen Alexandra Solarium, Cancer Fund and War Memorial. Jean Carter reported. Disbursements totaled $45 with a bank balance of $72 in the general fund.

Two new members, Lillian Harrison and Donna Mawdsley were welcomed. Final plans were made for a bridge tea to be held at the Y.W.C.A. on March 8.

INSTITUTE MEETING

Members and guests of the Women's Institute were given an interesting demonstration on how to make a dress model by Mr. H. J. Marks at the meeting in the Parish Hall on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. Tryon presided. In a letter from the village commission, members were informed that the municipality will assume the responsibility of tending and pruning the trees on Memorial Avenue which were planted and nurtured by the W.I. in commemoration of those boys who didn't return in 1914-18. A motion was passed that a letter should be sent to the newly formed youth group to offer them any assistance and support they may need. The Vancouver Island Union Library will be moved from Stovel's into the Gift Shop on the 15th of the month.

A meeting of the P.-T.A. was held in the school, Monday evening, with Mrs. H. Butler, newly elected president, in the chair. Tentative plans for a "bring and buy" bazaar to be held in March were discussed. Mr. J. L. Nicholls gave a talk on "Home and School," and also demonstrated a new slide machine which the high school pupils are anxious to own. Appointed to attend the P.-T.A. convention in Victoria in April were Mrs. H. Butler and Miss Peggy Kent.

GUIDES TO BROADCAST

Victoria Girl Guides will be heard over the local station, CJVI, on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. They will present a half-hour program of campfire songs and a "Thinking Day" candle-light ceremony, in which Guides from various companies will take part. The program will be directed by Dorothy Abraham who will give a short talk on guiding.

Mark Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

MR. and Mrs. William Williams, 1154 Kings Road, who have resided in Victoria for 35 years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on February 20. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were married in the Windsor Place Presbyterian Church, Cardiff, Wales, where they lived for two years, later coming to Canada in 1912. They have two daughters, Mrs. G. A. A. Hebden, Mrs. George Motion; and one son, Mr. Reg Williams, all of whom reside here. There are three grandchildren. The event was marked by an afternoon reception at the home of Mrs. G. A. A. Hebden, 1773 Lillian Road, followed by a family dinner party.

Young Musician Performs Brilliantly in Violin Concert

Victorian who attended the concert played last evening at the Royal Victoria Theatre by Patricia Travers, brilliant young violinist, were given a musical treat they will not soon forget.

All too often, a child prodigy fails to develop into a really mature artist, and it is rarely indeed that so young a musician as Miss Travers shows such depth of color and loveliness of tone, together with complete mastery of the instrument. The program was varied, well balanced and most taxing in its demands.

Handel's "Sonata in A Major" was the opening number. The quiet, pastoral quality of the final movement, the "Allegro," was particularly moving, having a clear limpid loveliness of tone.

The "Sonata in G Minor" for violin alone, by Bach, was a real triumph, especially in the opening "Adagio." The way the young artist brought out the several melodies with underlying accompaniment was something at which to marvel. The second movement, "Fuga," was in marked contrast to the sedate dance rhythm of the third movement "Siciliana," and the audience practically cheered Miss Travers as she concluded the brilliant final "Presto."

For the concluding number of the first half of the evening, "Concerto in D Minor," by the Finnish composer, Sibelius, was played.

The second half of the program was devoted to the modern composers, almost entirely. The "Second Sonata," by Charles Edward Ives, proved interestingly different. Although written nearly 40 years ago, it is only now being performed. It is intriguing, with a tonal and polytonal effects, and is as definitely North American as apple pie. It has been hailed by violinists as being definitely programmatic. Certainly, as played last evening it is full of surprises, and was one of the high spots of the program.

Pablo Sarasate's "Habanera," the gay Creole country dance rhythm, was in complete contrast to the cool, detached "Beau Soir" of Claude Debussy, arranged by Heifetz. Suk's "Burleska" was full of Slavonic bizarre abandon, although there was an undertone of mysticism to be heard. The final number, Paganini's "Caprice No. 24," arranged by Auer, showed Miss Traver's amazing mastery of technique. As encores she played "Perpetual Motion," by Novacek, and "Jamaican Rhumba," by Benjamin, arranged by Primrose.

I.O.D.E. Chapters

Robert Burns McMicking Chapter, I.O.D.E., are holding their annual meeting at the home of Miss Pearl Barbour, 39 Howe Street, on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

To Buy $500 Legion Building Fund Bonds

DUNCAN, Feb. 20.—At a meeting of the W.A. to the Canadian Legion held recently with Mrs. W. Dennis in the chair, the members decided to purchase $500 worth of debentures of the Canadian Legion building fund. This action was taken after an address by the Legion secretary, Mr. W. J. S. Hatter, who spoke on the plans for the new building.

Mrs. George Kennett, reporting for the visiting committee, told of making 30 visits to the local hospital during the past month, and said that 12 babies had been born to wives of veterans.

Arrangements were made for a St. Patrick's Day tea and sale of aprons. A prize will be given for the best apron donated. The stall will be in charge of Mrs. Harold Jackson.

Mrs. Deane-Freeman, provincial president of the W.A., will address a meeting in Duncan on February 21.

A donation of $25 will be sent to the Vancouver veteran and his wife, who were recently burned out, and $25 was donated to the Cowichan War Memorial Fund.

Tea was served at the conclusion of the meeting by Mrs. C. Smith and Mrs. A. J. Castle. Mrs. F. Fawcett was appointed tea convener for 1947.

Pretty Wedding At Cobble Hill

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. John's Church, Cobble Hill, on February 15, when Winnifred Grace, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hearn, of Cobble Hill, became the bride of Mr. Reginald Leslie Horton, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Horton, of Cobble Hill. Rev. E. M. Willis officiated and the wedding music was played by Mr. Paul Michelin.

The bride, given away by her father, was charming in her gown of egg-shell satin, fashioned with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her full-length veil was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. She was attended by Miss Mabel Bell, who wore pale yellow taffeta with matching shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of carnations, blue irises, and daffodils. Mr. Colin Horton supported his brother as best man.

A small reception for close friends and relatives followed the ceremony, refreshments being served from a table centred with a two-tiered wedding cake. Rev. Willis proposed the toast to the bride. For a motor trip through the States, the bride wore a turquoise suit and hat, with a brown topcoat and brown accessories. On their return they will take up residence at Mill Bay.

RIO THE PLACE TO GO

At the Theatres

Adventure and Suspense In Fine Musical

Roy Rogers once again proves why he is one of America's ten most popular stars in Republic's song-studded hit "Under Nevada Skies," which opens today at the Dominion Theatre.

Dale Evans, queen of the Westerns, appears opposite Roy and has never been seen to better advantage. George "Gabby" Hayes is again on hand, too, with another of his inimitable characterizations.

The story gets under way with a bang as Tom Craig, owner of the Bear Valley Trading Post, is found mysteriously murdered.

CAPITOL THEATRE Marilyn Maxwell, possessed of one of the best singing voices in Hollywood, is playing second fiddle to Red Skelton's tremulous tenor in the new M-G-M comedy-drama, "The Show-Off," now showing on the Capitol Theatre screen. Miss Maxwell began her career as a singer with a band and gained entrance to motion pictures because she looked like a "natural" for musical films.

ATLAS THEATRE Cathy Downs is one of the many cover girls who in recent years have tried for careers in the movies, and one of the few to know success. Currently portraying the title role in Twentieth Century-Fox's "My Darling Clementine," which is now showing at the Atlas Theatre, Cathy once was one of New York's most sought after fashion models. A blue-eyed blonde with a striking figure, she graced the covers of many magazines, notably Vogue and Mademoiselle.

PLAZA THEATRE "Mom and Dad," now showing at the Plaza Theatre, is so human and so true to everyday life as we live it here in America today, that it touches the heart of most everyone. Boasting no big headline names, but a large cast of all-stars hand-picked from Hollywood and the New York stage, "Mom and Dad" is vital, timely and very educational. It speaks out the truth and it pulls no punches while doing it.

ROYAL THEATRE With the completion of W. Somerset Maugham's "The Razor's Edge," which is now showing at the Royal Theatre, Darryl F. Zanuck has personally supervised, without the aid of an associate producer, eight of Twentieth Century-Fox's major productions since taking over as the company's chief production executive. Starring in "The Razor's Edge" are Tyrone Power, Gene Tierney, John Payne, Anne Baxter, Clifton Webb and Herbert Marshall.

YORK THEATRE The trials and tribulations of a newly-married couple provide laughter and poignant moments alike in "The Sailor Takes a Wife," which is now showing on the York screen. With Robert Walker as the sailor, and June Allyson as the wife, the picture tells the heartwarming story of the two falling in love at first sight after their meeting at a New York canteen.

PETER SAVES A FRIEND

Peter Rabbit sat in a thicket of young trees on the edge of the Green Forest. So far as he knew he was all alone. It was very quiet there and it wasn't long before he was dozing. Now Peter is a light sleeper, as all little people who never know when they may have to run for their lives must be. By and by he awoke with a start, and he was very wide awake indeed. Something had wakened him, but just what it was he couldn't say.

For a few minutes he heard nothing and saw nothing. Then, near the other edge of the thicket, he heard a great rustling of dry leaves. For just an instant Peter was startled, but only for an instant. His long ears told him at once that that noise was made by someone scratching among the leaves, and he knew that no one who did not wear feathers could scratch like that.

"Now, who can that be?" thought Peter, and stole forward very softly. Presently he saw the brown leaves which carpeted the ground fly this way and that, and in the midst of them was an exceedingly busy person, just a little smaller than Welcome Robin, scratching away for dear life. Every now and then he picked up something.

His head, throat, back and breast were black. Beneath he was white. His sides were reddish brown. His tail was black and white and the longer feathers of his wings were edged with white. It was Chewink the Towhee, sometimes called the Ground Robin.

Peter kept perfectly still, for it was fun to watch someone who hadn't the least idea he was being watched. Chewink's feet were made for scratching and he certainly knew how to use them. For some time Peter sat there watching. Just as he had about made up his mind to make his presence known and have a bit of morning gossip, he happened to look out beyond the edge of the little thicket. There he saw something red. It was something alive, for it was moving very slowly and cautiously toward the place where Chewink was scratching, forgetful of everything but his breakfast. It was Reddy Fox and quite plainly Reddy was hoping to catch Chewink.

Suddenly Peter thumped the ground with his feet. It was his danger signal, which all his friends know. Then he turned and scampered lipperty-lipperty-lip, to a bramble-tangle not far behind him. At that thump Chewink instantly flew up in a little tree. Then he saw Reddy Fox and began to scold. As for Reddy, he looked over toward the bramble-tangle and snarled.

"I'll get you one of these days, Peter Rabbit," said he. "I'll get you one of these days and pay you up for cheating me out of a breakfast." Without so much as a glance at Chewink, Reddy turned and trotted off, trying to look as if he had never entertained such a thought as trying to catch Chewink.

PLANETARY GUIDE FOR FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1947

Keywords for the Day: Reform, Charity, Goodwill.

Friday in General: Don't be misled by surface appearances, false impressions. Wait until evening to see important people or loved ones on vital matters. Be sure everything is above-board in all dealings now.

If February 21 Is Your Birthdate: "Many Happy Returns." Famous persons born on this date include: John Henry, Cardinal Newman, writer; Alice Freeman Palmer, educator; Dane Clark, actor.

Your Year Ahead—New and important developments are assured, but there will be tendencies to cloudy judgment and complications re mutual accounts, unless care and discretion are exercised. Be sociable.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

TO BE "CHARY"

We have an inquiry as to whether the expressoin "being chary" is slang. On the contrary, chary is a word with a quite orthodox derivation, from the Anglo-Saxon branch of our linguistic ancestry.

"Chary" stems from the Anglo-Saxon cearig, meaning caring or careful. The Anglo-Saxon "caru" (care) has kinship with the Old Saxon "kara" which meant sorrow and in the sense of lament is thought to be connected with the Greek word for "voice."

This sense of sorrow seems to have been the earlier connotation of care, its other aspects developing from that — burdensome responsibility, trouble, then taking trouble, which takes us to the angle of anxiety, concern. An understandable shift, at this point in the process, is to caution—taking care, being careful or chary.

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "My father forbids me from going."

2. What is the correct pronunciation of "mousse" (a frozen dessert)?

3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Benificial, benignant, benighted?

4. What does the word "cataclysm" mean?

5. What is a word beginning with "fo" that means "happening by chance or accident"?

ANSWERS

1. Say, "My father forbids my going," or "forbids me to go." 2. Pronounce moos, "oo" as in moon. 3. Beneficial. 4. An overwhelming flood (pronounce kat-a-kliz'm), first "a" as in cat, second "a" unstressed "i" as in it, accent first syllable. 3. Fortuitous.

Lumley in Shutout As Wings Triumph

HOW THEY STAND

	W.	L.	T.	GF.	GA.	Pts.
Canadiens	28	12	8	155	105	64
Toronto	25	15	7	145	136	57
Rangers	20	22	8	136	137	48
Boston	17	22	10	135	145	44
Detroit	15	24	8	148	154	38
Chicago	16	26	4	136	185	36

Last night's score: Detroit 2, Boston 0.

Next games, tomorrow: Canadiens at Detroit; Rangers at Toronto.

DETROIT, Feb. 20 (AP).—Boston Bruins succumbed to their second shutout defeat in two days as Detroit Red Wings scored once in each period tonight for a 3-0 National Hockey League triumph before 11,782 fans.

It was the first shutout victory of the season for Harry Lumley, Detroit goalie who turned back 32 Boston shots. Lumley was in the nets in Detroit's scoreless tie with Chicago Black Hawks last December 4, however.

Boston, before being blanked by Detroit, dropped a 6-0 decision to New York Rangers, Wednesday.

Bill Quackenbush counted Detroit's first goal midway of the opening period on a six-foot shot from straightaway, and Ted Lindsay counted from the corner of the net on a three-way play with Jim and Roy Conacher in the second session. Roy Conacher scored Detroit's third period marker on a shot that slipped between Frankie Brimsek's feet after Billy Taylor pulled the Boston defence out of position.

It was the 20th goal of the season for both Lindsay and Conacher, who thus became the eighth and ninth N.H.L. players to hit that figure this season.

SUMMARY

First Period—1, Detroit, Quackenbush (Howe, Abel), 11:38. Penalties: Flaman, McCale.

Second Period—2, Detroit, Lindsay (J. Conacher, R. Conacher), 16:19. Penalty McGill.

Third Period—3, Detroit, R. Conacher, 5:47.

The Sports Roundup

From C.P. and A.P. Wire Reports

Bobby Bauer, Milt Schmidt, Joe Carveth, of the Boston Bruins; Roy Conacher, Detroit Red Wings; Bill Mosienko, Chicago Black Hawks; and Elmer Lach, Montreal Canadiens, have all reached the 100-goal mark in the N.H.L.

The Canadian Press All-Star N.H.L. team, for 15 years the basis of bonuses to players who made its grade, has been discontinued this season following the announcement that the N.H.L. will do its own selecting.

Pitchers Jean Pierre Roy and Walter Nothe, of the Montreal Royals, have been suspended from organized baseball for five years for playing Winter baseball in the outlawed Cuban League.

Barbara Ann Scott has rejected several movie offers following her victories in the European and world's figure-skating championships because such a move would affect her amateur standing.

Part of Beau Jack's purse for his fight tonight with Tony Janiro has been ordered withheld. A White Plains, N.Y., judge ordered that $2,500 be taken from his purse for his three children following a charge of non-support.

Babe Pratt is authority for the statement that he is glad to be in the minors and not going back to the N.H.L. He was sent to Hershey in the A.H.L. by the Boston Bruins after 12 years in the major circuit.

A vast difference of opinion prevails on Jackie Robinson's ability as a baseball player. Bob Feller and Rollie Hemsley, who barnstormed against the Negro star, feel that he will not make the majors. Frank Shaughnessy, president of the International League, is just as positive that Robinson is one of the best prospects in years and a cinch to stick in the majors if given a chance.

Carpet Bowling

Results of matches in the Capital City and District Carpet Bowling League tournament now in progress are as follows:

Medley Triples — Colvin, Marr and Whittle 17, Thornber, Cruickshank and Bates 11; Drummond, Sheppard and McMillan 24, Thackray, Williams and Greenslade 13.

A. and N. Cup—Rangers (A. Mcmillan, skip) defeated Willows Park (W. Cull, skip).

Kiwanis Cup—Rangers defeated Willows Park.

The following matches are listed for Monday and Tuesday of next week:

Monday—Medley Triples—Bridge vs. Kendle and House vs. Jenkins; McIrose and Pannell; Singles: B. Thomas vs. J. Whittle, W. Colvin vs. D. Willaims.

Tuesday—A. and N. Cup: Beagles vs. Friars. Singles: J. Pannell vs. E. Sheppard, H. Thornber vs. J. House.

Saints' Fullback

TOMMY McKIBBON

Veteran back with St. Saviours, who will be at his regular berth at left fullback when his team opposes Victoria United in tomorrow's Coast League soccer match at Royal Athletic Park. St. Saviours' line-up for the game follows: Camp; Kenning and McKibbon; J. Milstead, Cowan and Sawyer or Beese, Denny Rogers, Brian Philley, Ray Burgess, Tom Milstead and Joe Jankovitch. Kick-off will be at 2:45 p.m.

Watson Loses In Manitoba Consols Final

WINNIPEG, Feb. 20 (CP).—Jimmy Welsh, Winnipeg Deer Lodge, won the Manitoba Consols and the right to represent the province in the Macdonald's Brier Bonspiel—at Saint John, N.B., next month by defeating Ken Watson, Winnipeg Strathconas, 10-6 in the final here tonight.

Five thousand persons jammed their way into the amphitheatre where the match was played and officials estimated almost another 2,000 were turned away.

Welch's victory came just ten years after he had represented Manitoba in the Canadian 'Spiel—he was beaten in the final by Cliff Manahan, of Edmonton—and to get it he had to beat a skip who twice has been Canadian champion and has won the grand aggregate in the Manitoba 'Spiel the last six years—a record.

College Loses Contest To Chemainus Cagers

Victoria College will be faced with a 23-point deficit when it faces Chemainus McBrides here on Monday, having dropped a 44-21 contest to the Up-Island quintette at Ladysmith on Wednesday in the first game of their Lower Island senior "C" cage play-off. Gibbons led Chemainus to victory with 22 points.

Oak Bay High Leads Junior Soccer League

INTER-HIGH SOCCER

JUNIOR LEAGUE

	P.	W.	L.	D.	F.	A.	Pts.
Oak Bay Whites	2	2	0	0	9	2	6
Victoria High Blacks	2	1	0	1	6	5	5
Mount View	2	1	0	1	2	2	5
Oak Bay Greens	2	0	1	1	5	7	1
Mount Douglas	2	0	1	1	4	6	1
Victoria High Golds	2	0	1	1	2	6	1

Points: Win, 3; draw, 2; loss, 1; default, 0.

A smashing 6-2 victory by Oak Bay Whites over Victoria High Golds moved them into the lead in the Greater Victoria High School Junior Soccer League at the end of the second week of play. Two other scheduled contests ended in stalemates, each with thrilling last-minute finishes.

Jim Burns tallied twice to give Oak Bay Whites a 2-0 half-time lead over Golds. After the interval Stan Heal and Hugh Johnston made it 4-0 before Hunt converted a corner for Vic High. Burns scored his third counter soon afterwards and Johnny Johnson drove in a long shot from the right wing to bring the count to 6-1. Francis Evans converted his own rebound on a spot kick to complete the scoring. Ernie Costain refereed.

Mount View juniors earned a 2-2 draw with Oak Bay Greens when Arthur Manson scored from a goalmouth scramble in the last few seconds of play. Martin Tate put Mount View one up shortly after half-time with a nice effort. After the breather, Murray Saunders tied up the game and Ross Noel converted a penalty to put Oak Bay in the lead. George Kulai officiated.

The Mount Douglas-Victoria High Blacks tussle was a thriller, with the lead changing hands twice. Mount Douglas had moved into a 2-0 lead by half-time on goals by Baker and Cornish. In the second half Rapanos and Rowe knotted the count. Rowe put the Blacks in the lead, but Curry shortly afterwards squared things for the suburbanites. In the last minute of play Robb missed a grand chance for the Blacks when his effort on a penalty kick hit an upright and rebounded clear.

Baker Scores 31 In Hornets' Win

SEATTLE, Feb. 20 (AP).—The amazing shooting of Norm Baker, Vancouver Hornets' "one-man gang," led the Vancouver team to a 57-55 win tonight over the Seattle Blue Devils in a Pacific Coast Pro Basketball League game. Baker scored 31 points, a season high in league play here.

With Seattle taking an early lead which mounted to 19-3, Baker started his scoring drive and his team climbed to trail only 34-23 at half-time.

The score was deadlocked later at 50-50 and 52-52 on Baker's pointmaking, and when Frank Watson, Seattle forward, put Seattle ahead again, 54-52, Baker again tied it up. Art Chapman's goal and Chapman's free throw assured the Vancouver victory.

Norm Dalthorp, forward, scored 19 for Seattle.

Vancouver—Baker 31, Nicol, Peden 6, Osterbaur 1, Chapman 9, Lawn 4, Vaughan 4, Clarkson. Total 57.

Seattle—Dalthorp 19, Watson 9, Maul 12, Sigurdson 7, Parsons 6, Chase 2, Olavin, Leach. Total 55.

NORTH WARD PRACTICE

North Ward juvenile division four soccer club will hold a workout at Upper Central Park tomorrow at 1 p.m. A meeting will be held following the practice.

Musial Not at Table When 1947 Salary Cake Sliced

ONE can hardly blame Stan Musial, probably baseball's greatest current star, if he feels fate dealt him an unkind blow when he became associated with the St. Louis Cardinals. Shifting from the outfield to first base to plug a big gap last year, Musial led the Cards into and through the world series. He hit .365 and played in 156 games during the season. He scored the most runs, 124, and made the most hits, 228. He was voted the National League's most valuable player yet his salary this season will be around the $28,000 mark, a substantial figure, it is true, but out of proportion with the stipends to be earned by the game's other outstanding name players.

Donors Thanked For Memorial Cup

DONATION of a memorial trophy by former teammates to perpetuate the memory of Ernie Elford and Billy (Red) Bateman, two young Victoria athletes who were killed while serving overseas has drawn much favorable comment from Victoria sports fans.

Yesterday, in a letter to The Daily Colonist, Mrs. W. L. Bateman and Mrs. W. J. Elford, mothers of the two boys, expressed their thanks to Cec Clague, Don Smith, Duff McCaghey, Byron, Bob and Wilf Price, Tom James, George Harknett, Norm Wharf, Fred Acreman, Bob Webster, Dodo McKay and Bob Ostler for their action.

The trophy, which is for the city intermediate "A" basketball championship, was presented to the Eagles at the High School gymnasium on Wednesday evening.

Meralomas Win

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP).—Vancouver Meralomas edged out the New Westminster Adanacs, 46-44, here tonight to take a 2-0 lead in their best-of-five play-off series for the city senior "A" basketball title.

Jack Pomfret and Ole Bakken set the pace for the winners with 15 and 14 points, respectively. Edmundson scored 12 for the losers.

Line-ups:

Meralomas—Robertson, Wynne 2, Pomfret 15, Bakken 14, Henderson 1, Bardsley 9, Holden 3, Williams, MacLeod, Burtwell 2, Spencer. Total 46.

Adanacs—Edmundson 12, Fay 8, Matheson 8, Becott 6, Julien 3, Gray 4, Lizee 2, Northup, Hewitt. Total 44.

Suspend Players

It was announced yesterday by Pat Mulcahy, B.C. soccer commissioner, that Joe Travis, of Victoria Wests, and Glen Robbins, of Canadian Legion, have been suspended until April 1 for fighting in a Wests-Legion game last Saturday. Neither player will be permitted to participate in Victoria and District League or Pacific Coast League games until that date.

Two Victoria teams will travel Up-Island tonight to engage in basketball play-off games. Eagles of the intermediate "A" boys division will go into the second game of their total-point series with Duncan Zeniths with a two-point deficit. Canadian Legion midgets will play Ladysmith in the first game of their series, with the final game billed here for Monday.

Tide Alters Line-Up For Varsity Match

Several major changes have been made in the Victoria Rep fifteen for their important clash against the powerful U.B.C. Thunderbirds at Vancouver tomorrow, it was announced last night following a workout of the McKechnie Cup squad at Macdonald Park.

Daryl Popham, speedy J.B.A.A. back and a handy defensive player as well, will be added to the three-quarter line and will start at one of the wing positions. Dick Chungranes will occupy the important five-eighths spot, where he performed creditably in the latter stages of the game against Vancouver Lions on Saturday.

Freddy Ranson has been moved over to the other wing position, while Austin Cullin and Jack Gibbs will fill the inside three-quarter slots.

Two changes have been made in the pack, Joe Andrews going in for Van Druten, who is suffering from injuries, and Roger Oakley replacing Mike Carley. The latter has been unable to attend practices and will act as a spare along with Harry Olsen, backfielder.

The rest of the club make-up will be unchanged with Tom McKeachie at fullback, Ritchie Williams at scrum half, and Bill Gornall, captain, Bob Mair, Doug Homer-Dixon, Cliff Denham, Albie Williams and Doug Bray.

Victoria will be favored by the fact that both team coaches, Campbell Forbes and Major A. G. Dobbie, have had long experience in the style of play used by Varsity fifteens.

The latter, who coached famed Varsity Wonder teams to many triumphs, will be using his knowledge to combat a 1947 edition which is claimed to be equal to great U.B.C. teams of yesteryear.

List Exhibition, League Contests In Senior Soccer

Two exhibition games here with outside teams are included in a schedule of games for teams in the Victoria and District Football Association, Secretary Carle Rodway announced yesterday.

Canadian Legion will play a return game with Seattle at Royal Athletic Park on Sunday, March 2, and Victoria Wests will oppose the University of British Columbia soccer team at the same park on March 8.

This Sunday Legion and Oak Bay will clash at Royal Athletic Park, and Esquimalt and Wests will meet at Bullen Park in league fixtures, both starting at 2:30 p.m.

Schedule follows:

Sunday, March 2—Legion vs. Seattle, Athletic Park.

Saturday, March 8—Wests vs. Varsity, Athletic Park.

Sunday, March 9—Legion vs. Esquimalt, Macdonald Park.

Sunday, March 16—Wests vs. Oak Bay, Athletic Park.

Sunday, March 23—Oak Bay vs. Legion, Macdonald Park.

Plan B.C. Series For Intermediate Football Elevens

Victoria intermediate soccer teams which had intended entering against senior competition in The Province and Jackson Cup playdowns will not be able to do so, according to a ruling received by local officials from the British Columbia body. The provincial executive announced that it is planned to have a cup series for intermediate teams only, with the winner to be named provincial champion.

League games scheduled for tomorrow bring together Oak Bay and Saanich Indians at Beacon Hill Park and Saanich Thistles and Navy at Macdonald Park. Both games start at 2:30 p.m.

Duck Hunters Have Rights Judge States

CAMDEN, N.J., Feb. 20 (AP).—The ducks have their rights and so do the hunters who brave cold, wet marshes to shoot them, Judge Thomas M. Madden decreed today.

He slapped a $25 fine on 23-year-old Thomas B. Stables, a former fighter plane instructor in the United States Army and recently manager of the closed Salem, N.J., airport.

The charge, unlawfully stirring up migratory waterfowl by means of an aircraft, was laid on complaint of four duck hunters who didn't get a bird.

"Sometimes," declared Judge Madden, "I think there are not enough people left who are close enough to nature."

And he warned that any similar defendants will "get the book" in the future.

Complainants said they were stationed in blinds on the Salem Marshes one morning last October and Stables flew as low as 25 feet over them for half an hour, ruining the day's sport. He even rounded up the ducks in the air and chased them from sight, they claimed.

Stables denied he deliberately chased the ducks and said he had not seen the hunters. But Game Warden Jervas J. Hall testified the flyer told him afterward he thought he had been helping the hunters by flushing the birds for them.

Judge Madden judiciously told Stables:

"You must realize that duck hunters must get up very early, get a cold breakfast, sneak out on the marshes long before daylight and then sit in their cold blinds and hope. If it is raining on them, that is nasty, but it is necessary for a good duck day . . .

"I am very reluctant to find you guilty. You were not helping them but ruining the sport they had been waiting for."

Election of Officers

The Chinook Club will hold its annual meeting and supper at Terry's on Tuesday at 7 p.m., President Ray Ritchie announced. Following the supper, election of officers and general business will take place.

Canada May Bid for 1952 Olympics

LAC BEAUPORT, Que., Feb. 20 (CP).—A Canadian bid for the 1952 Olympic Games appeared possible tonight in the light of a statement by A. Sidney Dawes, president of the Canadian Ski Association, that national physical fitness committee officials in Ottawa had shown a "keen interest" in making such an application.

Dawes, also head of the Canadian Olympic Games committee, said he would sound out the feeling about holding the games in Canada when he travels to Sweden this Summer. He said that he would talk to Winter Games officials but indicated that Canada, if a bid is made, would seek the entire games and not just the Winter end.

Earlier, Gerald Martineau, president of the ski advancement committee of Quebec City, had said that Quebec was interested in the possibility of holding the Winter Games.

Dawes said that Detroit and Minneapolis had already started the ball rolling by indicating they intended to apply for the full Olympic Games. He said that he could not see where the games, if staged in Canada, could be held elsewhere than in Quebec Province.

Admitting that it would take a great deal of money to swing the games, Dawes remarked that the Swiss Ski Association had asked the Swiss Government for a $250,000 donation to cover any loss that might result from the holding of Winter Games in Switzerland in 1948.

"It must be remembered, too, that Switzerland already has constructed a number of things like a bob-sled run, various skating rinks and so on that would have to be built here."

He also said that one of the biggest problems would be to provide suitable accommodation both for contestants and spectators.

Mr. Martineau, whose committee assumed the responsibility for the financial arrangements in the present ski meet, expressed belief that the Laurentides Park, about 50 miles north of Quebec City, would be the logical site for the Winter Games if they are held in Canada.

Parksville School Students To Purchase $265 Projector

PARKSVILLE, Feb. 20.—Students of Parksville School were so keen about the Spencer delineascope they had on approval for several weeks that they decided to purchase the machine for $265 with their own funds.

Initial payment will be made from funds raised by the Hallowe'en shell-out and students' fees. The remaining half will be raised through students doing odd jobs in the community.

The Spencer delineascope can be used in teaching all subjects at all levels. Opaque objects, postcards, photographs, pupils' work, illustrations from books and periodicals, as well as slides, slide films and microslides can be magnified on the screen by the unit.

Turkey Lectures Start Next Week

A series of lectures will be sponsored by the Vancouver Island Turkey Improvement Association next week on subjects of interest to turkey breeders.

First meeting in the series will be held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium here at 8 p.m. Thursday. Second meeting will be at Nanaimo in the Canadian Legion Hall on Friday and the last meeting in Courtenay Agricultural Hall March 1.

Speakers at the meetings will be Dr. S. N. Wood, of the University of British Columbia, well-known poultry expert in charge of the poultry testing laboratory at the university, and W. H. Pope, provincial poultry inspector.

Plan Club Shield At Parksville

PARKSVILLE, Feb. 20.—Parksville Teen Town members have been invited to submit diagrams for a club shield in a contest that will close on Monday. At a business meeting this week, it was decided that the monthly fee would be 25 cents, with an entrance fee of $2 which may be paid in installments.

Under supervision of Dan Murray and Harvey Adams, 40 junior Teen Town members meet in the parish hall every Monday night. Separate periods for gymnastic activities will be arranged.

New Sidney Restroom Plan to Cost $3,000

SIDNEY, Feb. 20.—The sum of $1,000 towards the cost of a $3,000 restroom on Beacon Avenue, between Sidney Hotel and the office of Saanich Canning Co. Ltd., will be raised by Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce.

B.C. Coast Steamship Service and the Puget Sound Navigation Co. Ltd. will each contribute $1,000. F. N. Wright is chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of raising funds.

New Parksville Nurse

PARKSVILLE, Feb. 20.—Parksville and district now has a public health nurse. Miss Irene Butler, who received her bachelor of applied science degree at the University of British Columbia and completed her nurse's training at Vancouver General Hospital, is living at Crayharven Inn.

Last Rites at Ganges

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Constance Emily Harvey, 82, will be held at Ganges today. She passed away in the Victoria Nursing Home yesterday. Mrs. Harvey is survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. B. Elliott and Mrs. Lang, Ganges; a son, L. C. Moseley, Berkeley, Cal.; also eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Sidney Department Wants Fire Truck

SIDNEY, Feb. 20.—Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce appointed Everett Goddard, Warren Hastings, Thomas Jones, Cmdr. F. B. Leigh and L. H. Nicholson members of a finance committee to raise $6,000 for the volunteer fire department. Plans call for repairs to the fire hall, purchase of two-and-one-half-inch hose, and an additional fire truck.

Malahat Lookout Gets Telephone

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, Feb. 20.—At a meeting of South Cowichan Taxpayers' Association at Cobble Hill, it was reported that correspondence had resulted in action by the B.C. Telephone Company in putting in a telephone at the Malahat Lookout. Another telephone will be installed at Stacey's Boathouse, making two on the long stretch of road between Mill Bay and Langford.

Resolutions regarding condition and maintenance of side roads and main highways in the district were approved, and will be sent to the district members of parliament. School matters in Cowichan school district were discussed at length, and a resolution was ordered sent to the school board demanding immediate steps to relieve the overcrowding at Mill Bay School.

Trustees present announced a forthcoming meeting with residents of the former Mill Bay and Sylvania school districts to study their local school problems.

The committee in charge of defining a pound area to cover portions of the district not already so covered, reported the necessary signatures had been obtained to a petition and sufficient funds collected for government advertising. The committee will proceed to aid the executive in finding a pound-keeper. The support of the Farmers' Institute was offered in that connection. A plan to provide water for the whole district was proposed and discussed.

Selected Master Nanaimo Harbor

NANAIMO, Feb. 20.—Capt. Ben Abrams has been appointed harbor master to succeed the late M. C. Ironside, whose death occurred recently. Mr. Abrams is a former naval captain with more than five years' service. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Abrams, Elizabeth Street.

To Rebuild Hotel At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI, Feb. 20.—E. "Tim" Ely, manager of the Somass Hotel here, said today he intended to purchase the hotel property upon conclusion of the insurance adjustment.

The Somass Hotel was destroyed Monday night when a $150,000 fire left the frame sections a charred ruin and gutted a new brick wing.

Mr. Ely said he would reopen a portion of the hotel which would be ready for occupancy within six weeks. Later he intended to construct a two-story, 100-room hotel.

Parksville Home Site

PARKSVILLE, Feb. 20.—Coates Davis & Hinde, which is affiliated with H. A. Roberts here, will open up Arroyos subdivision, consisting of 250 acres between Community Park and Englishman River. The new block will be in half-acre plots with space for an auto camp site.

Duncan Group 24 Years Old

DUNCAN, Feb. 20.—At the annual meeting of Duncan Parent-Teacher Association in Agricultural Hall, the 24th anniversary of the founding of the organization was observed. A minute's silence was observed in memory of the late Mrs. W. A. Lorimer, founder of Parent-Teacher Associations in Canada, who died recently at Victoria.

The retiring officers, Mrs. W. J. Clarke, president, and Miss Audrey [illegible], were presented with corsages.

Dick Horsfall was elected president; Mrs. H. Henslowe, vice-president; Miss Brander, secretary, and Miss A. Dickson, treasurer.

A resolution was passed by the meeting strongly supporting Arthur Peake, principal of the Duncan Elementary School, who is under notice of dismissal for alleged lack of co-operation with the school board.

S. R. Kirkham, first president of the Duncan Parent-Teacher organization, gave a short address. Mrs. W. Murchie, the original secretary, cut a birthday cake.

Mail Service Debate Held

OTTAWA, Feb. 20 (CP).—Arthur Smith (Progressive Conservative, Calgary West) suggested tonight in the Commons that the Government should handle rural mail contracts purely on the basis of tender.

He spoke before second reading of a bill giving the Postmaster-General power to pay bonuses to mail carriers who find that they are operating at a loss.

Mr. Smith said the contracts should be kept out of politics. A Postmaster-General—possibly the successor to Postmaster-General Bertrand—might award the bonuses on a basis of politics.

Mr. Smith said he might submit a tender for a mail route and turn out to be the lowest bidder. A year later he might apply for a bonus. If he was not a friend of the Postmaster he might not get it.

Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C. (Progressive Conservative, Nanaimo) contended the bonuses to carriers should be paid on a basis of mail boxes served.

He said residents of Port Renfrew on Vancouver Island wanted better mail service. They now got their mail every ten days, yet there was a bus service going into Port Renfrew three times a week.

Maj.-Gen. Pearkes said he agreed with Max Campbell (C.C.F., Maple Creek) that mail carriers should be made full-time civil servants and eligible for pensions and other benefits.

George Cruickshank (Liberal, Fraser Valley) said all he asked was that the mail carriers of British Columbia be given treatment similar to that of carriers in Quebec.

Increase Plywood For Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI, Feb. 20.—The amount of plywood available for domestic use in Alberni district has been doubled, it was revealed at a City Council meeting. It will now be possible to obtain up to 85,000,000 square feet monthly, Ald. Loran Jordan advised the council. He is an employee of the Alberni Pacific Lumber Co., Ltd., whose related plant, Alberni Plywoods, Ltd., manufactures plywood here.

Board Asks Ruling On Secession Move

DUNCAN, Feb. 20.—Trustees of Cowichan School District, No. 65, have tabled all building plans until they obtain a ruling from the Provincial Department of Education on the outcome of attempts at secession by communities in the southern portion of the school district.

To Pay Hospital Bills

DUNCAN, Feb. 20.—Directors of King's Daughters' Hospital have placed $30,000 in a general account to repay loans and outstanding bills, invested $25,000 in Victory Bonds, placed $5,000 in an equipment fund, and set aside $7,553 in a building fund.

Cowichan Bay Busy

DUNCAN, Feb. 20.—Duncan Chamber of Commerce learned that 250 coastwise vessels visited Cowichan Bay last year, and 39 deep-sea freighters loaded 24,000,000 board feet of lumber. The bay was visited by 300 yachts between July 1 and October 31.

Receive Nanaimo Huts

NANAIMO, Feb. 20.—Nanaimo Branch of the Canadian Legion received 25 huts for war veterans from War Assets Corporation, and those who intend to convert them into houses will start taking them apart this week.

4 CARDS OF THANKS

Mr. W. H. Gropp and daughter wish to express their thanks for the many loving messages and beautiful flowers received during the recent bereavement in the loss of a very dear wife and mother.

5 IN MEMORIAM

HUMPHREYS—In loving memory of Richard who passed away February 21, 1944.

What would we not give to clasp his hand
His dear sweet face to see,
To hear his voice
To see his smile
That meant so much to us
You left behind you aching hearts
Which time and time may never
We never did nor never will
Forget you Richard dear
Sadly missed by mother, dad, sisters and brother.

HUMPHREYS—In loving memory of Richard Charles Humphreys who passed away February 21, 1944.

You're in Jesus, brother dear
Not after death
As God's angels constantly hear
We shall remember then.

Inserted by his loving sisters, Margaret, Mary and Nancy and brother, Lawrence.

MOORMAN—In loving memory of Mum, Mrs. I. Moorman, who passed away February 21, 1944.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber
Peaceful in the grave so low
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our sorrows know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Ever remembered by the family.

REAL ESTATE LOANS ARE BAD BUSINESS

We are glad last summer's flurry did not develop into a full fledge boom. A steady market is a healthy market. A boom is like the mumps—it hurts like it heals. Let's keep our feet on the ground and our real estate prices where they belong.

[redacted] IS ONE that carries full value. Ten-bedroom residence for [redacted]. With $1,100 in the bank. Basement, etc. Newly decorated inside.

[redacted] IS ANOTHER of seven-room semi-bungalow. The interior of the home is one of the most up-to-date. Fairfield District. Close to Cadboro Bay. Modern breakfast room, attractive dining-room, two bedrooms up, a dream down, three-piece bathroom, $1,000 high recreation room, special interior decorating and plastering. Taxes $50. Total price $7,950.

OR THIS. Four-bedroom home built nine years ago in the ever popular Oak Bay district. Beautiful large living room and dining-room. California plaster coved ceilings, hardwood floors throughout. Large kitchen, [redacted] room off kitchen. Two large bedrooms downstairs and two bedrooms, upstairs. Three pieces Pembroke bath. $1,000 high recreation room, special interior decorating and plastering. Taxes $50. Total price $8,950.

$12,000

These properties are priced right, folks and they will sell immediately, we think.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP).—Airline stocks led a selective comeback in today's market, although many leaders remained indifferent. Transfers of 1,000,000 shares compared with 980,000 on Wednesday.

Aircraft issues attracting bids on the idea this group was behind the market, having done little in the January revival.

The Associated Press 60-stock [illegible] up 0.6 of a point at 67.0, after the drop of .5 the day before. Of 954 issues registering, 366 rose and 334 fell.

Johns-Manville, still buoyed by the proposed stock split-up, added 3½ at 136 on top of yesterday's 3-point gain. United Paperboard was active with an advance of 1⅞ at 18⅞. Douglas Aircraft was up 2 at 73 on small sales.

Montreal Stocks

[illegible] real power continued as the centre of attraction of an otherwise indifferent market in dealings up to the fourth hour on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market today. Apart from this one issue, most stocks were lightly traded with selected securities accounting for bulk of turnover.

Montreal power was selling at 23¼ for a gain of ¾ from yesterday's close, and a rise of three points from last week's level.

In a quiet paper group, Abitibi and M. & O. advanced ¼. Industrials were mainly unchanged. Winnipeg advanced ½. Mines were dull and featureless.

MONTREAL, Feb. 20 (CP).—Trading was again featureless on the bond market today with dealings light. Selected issues were in good demand but offerings were scarce.

Dominions were unchanged with a tendency to become firmer on the bid and offering sides. Provincials and municipals were unchanged. In rails, C.N.R. 3¾'s of 67 were up ¼, and Algomas down ¾.

Vancouver Stocks

VANCOUVER, Feb. 20 (CP).—Oils and mines regained their steadiness on the Vancouver Stock Exchange this afternoon while industrials were silent except for Coast Breweries which was unchanged at 3.30. Volume of the day's sales was 133,136 shares.

In the oils, Foothills at 2.50; National Pete. 20; Pacific Pete. 1.10, and Sunset, 9¼, were unchanged, while Anglo-Canadian rose 1 to 1.35 and [illegible]

Mines to show were Bridge River at 8½; Highland Bell, 81; Premier, 1.20, and Pioneer, 4.10, all unchanged. Salmon was off 1 to 24, and Sunset off 3 to 26.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, Feb. 20 (CP).—A downward trend on the stock exchange showed signs of being checked toward the close as prices hardened and earlier losses from fractions to more than a point began to level off. Action, however, with some exceptions in industrials and secondary golds, was dull for a volume of about 1,250,000 shares.

Utilities saw heavy trading in Montreal Power, more than 5,000, for a sizeable gain, and Winnipeg Electric, more than 3,000, for a good fractional advance. Other utilities traded mildly in fractions either way. Papers and foods picked up a little. Western oils traded lightly for little change.

Both golds and base metals joined in the hardening process to post a few gains than losses. Secondary gold saw Duquesne make a sudden spurt to advance 23 to $1.40 during the trading.

Shorter Training Recommended As Remedy for Lack of Nurses

A two-year training term for nurses, with shorter hours, better salaries and better accommodation was advocated in the Legislature yesterday by Mrs. Tilly J. Rolston (Coalition, Point Grey), as one way to remedy the shortage of nurses in Canada.

Mrs. Rolston also advocated establishment of a medical faculty at the university even if original plans for a hospital could not be carried through.

The Point Grey member then turned to the liquor question and suggested a royal commission to investigate the entire situation. She urged an educational program based on the misuse of liquor be incorporated in the public schools system as one way to "stop our current liquor binge."

Health and social studies did not go far enough, said Mrs. Rolston. There should be a vital co-ordinated program from six to 16 years of age by specialists, the money to be supplied out of liquor profits.

Another important phase of social studies should be the impressing on the students' minds of the real value of homes, added Mrs. Rolston who criticized a certain type of propaganda from guest speakers at the University of British Columbia that family life was becoming obsolete.

So many divorces are being granted in British Columbia that a probation officer should be attached to each family relations court, Mrs. Rolston said, because children set adrift from such marital fiascos were not fortified for adult life as they should be.

Zone Council Hits Cut in Squadrons

THE Victoria and District Zone Council of the Canadian Legion has "viewed with alarm the proposed reduction in the activities of auxiliary air force and air cadet squadrons," officials said last night.

The practical value of the supplemental training had proven its worth at the outbreak of the World War, a resolution stated.

It pointed out that early training made the task of training airmen extremely easier. "The effect of drastic reductions in 1932 is still fresh in the minds of many," the resolution stated.

Public Meeting To Discuss Forming Group

As part of an Ottawa-sponsored campaign to awaken public consciousness to importance of planning in community expansion and development, a public meeting will be held in the City Council chamber at 8 o'clock this evening to discuss the formation of a Victoria branch of the British Columbia division of the Community Planning Association of Canada.

The meeting will be addressed by Alan H. Armstrong, Ottawa, the newly-formed association's secretary-treasurer.

J. T. Gawthrop, secretary of the provincial division, which is the first to be formed in Canada, explained yesterday that the purpose of the movement is to interest and educate citizens generally in the need for planned programs of community expansion. The Dominion Government was responsible for the formation of the organization under a special grant, and information on current trends in community planning will be channeled to local groups.

The movement is being supported by the Provincial Government through its Bureau of Reconstruction.

War Assets Offer Stockings to Ladies

RELIEF for ladies who have suffered from Wintry blasts during the past several weeks is now in sight—if they will wear black stockings.

Officials of War Assets Corporation announced yesterday that nearly 100,000 pairs of black lisle hose are being allocated to various branch sales offices of the Crown corporation. Demand is expected to be heavy, especially for girls in nursing schools and women whose uniforms require black stockings. Sizes range from 8½ to 10½.

Presbytery Scores Lotteries And Race Meeting at Willows

Lotteries were termed "a wasteful and demoralizing practice to admit into our public life," at a meeting of the Victoria United Church Presbytery yesterday, and the churchmen went on record that they "should be discouraged at the outset."

The Presbytery recommended that the Provincial Government be urged to formulate a plan to [illegible]

Racing is an activity "not conducive to the building up of a healthy community life, and must have a harmful influence upon life, especially of our youth," the Presbytery announced after a discussion on the racing situation at the Willows.

The churchmen "heartily commended the Oak Bay Municipal Council for seeking curtailment of such an evil and call up the Legislature to support this stand."

Rev. Joseph Sidney Clark, pastor of Courtenay United Church, was elected as chairman of the Presbytery. His former pastorates were in Port Moody and Clayburn.

Rev. J. C. Thomson, B.A., for several years pastor of Wilkinson Road-Garden City Church, here, was named as secretary, and W. I. Land, of Victoria, continues as treasurer.

Rev. W. H. Kerley presented a report on the committee for religious education, and the Presbytery extended a unanimous vote of thanks to Clyde Woolard for services in Christian work among Sunday school and young people's groups throughout Vancouver Island.

Rev. W. W. McPherson, Ph.D., presided yesterday as the sessions resumed.

Following a report on home missions by Rev. J. C. Jackson, Rev. W. P. Bunt, superintendant of missions for British Columbia, said that an effort was being made to bring the salaries of men engaged on home mission fields up to a minimum standard of $1,750 a year.

Mr. Bunt referred to manifestations of progress found especially among Indian and youths and their growing desire for citizenship.

EQUALITY URGED

Placing of Chinese immigrants on a basis of equality with other nationals who reside in Canada has been urged by Robert Mezger, Victoria Labor-Progressive Party organizer, in letters to Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

"We do not believe that continued discrimination against our wartime allies should be countenanced in Canada," Mr. Mezger stated.

Club Sees Film On Founder Of Meat Firm

The courage, ambition and accomplishments of Augustus Swift, founder of the packing industry which bears his name, were depicted in the motion picture "Red Wagon," presented yesterday to members of the Rotary Club at the Empress Hotel.

The forty-minute film, shown to the club through the courtesy of A. Lindsay, manager of the Victoria branch of the company, depicted the life of Mr. Swift from his first business venture of more than a century ago.

Swift commenced his business career when 18 years old at his Cape Cod home when he borrowed money to buy his first heifer. His profit margin on that deal led to the initiation of his dream of a nation-wide meat business.

With his own initiative and the help of his understanding wife, Swift realized his ambition. His business grew. He instituted new ideas and revolutionized the meat-handling industry.

After his death, his sons and business associates carried on. The film concluded with scenes taken at meat establishments throughout Canada and the United States.

Kathleen Back In Service From June 1

Ss. Princess Kathleen, C.P.R. coastal passenger ship now being reconverted at Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., is scheduled to enter service on the "triangle run" on June 1, it was reported yesterday.

On June 21, Ss. Princess Alice is to be taken off the run, leaving the Ss. Princess Charlotte and Ss. Princess Kathleen to serve Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle.

Tentative times set for the "triangle run" service are as follows:

Princess Kathleen will leave Vancouver at 11 p.m., arrive at Seattle at 7 a.m., leave Seattle at 7:50 a.m., arrive Victoria at 12:30 p.m., leave Victoria 1:20 p.m., arrive Vancouver 5:30 p.m.

Princess Charlotte will leave Seattle at 11 p.m., arriving at Vancouver at 8 a.m., then leaving Vancouver at 10:30 a.m. arriving in Victoria at 3:45 p.m. She will leave Victoria at 4:30 p.m., arriving in Seattle at 9:40 p.m., leaving Seattle again at 11 p.m. for Vancouver.

Products Fair Discussed Here

In Victoria yesterday to discuss plans and organization work pertaining to the B.C. Products Fair, to be held at the Bay Street Armoury March 28 and 29 by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, were three members of the B.C. Products Bureau, Vancouver Board of Trade.

Headed by Archie Foreman, secretary of the Vancouver organization, the group also included Capt. George Atter and C. D. Cherry.

Yesterday afternoon they met with Percy Frampton, chairman of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the fair, in the chamber board room.

About 150 entries, all depicting industries of Victoria and the Province generally, will be exhibited. The program is being arranged jointly by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Vancouver body.

Proceeds of the products fair will go to the Queen Alexandra Solarium. It will be the first event of its kind to be held in this city, and will be designed to familiarize Victorians with goods produced within the province.

Boy Scout News

minded yesterday that on Saturday, February 22, they are to report to the North Quadra Scout stall at the Bay Street Armoury at 6:45 p.m., and on Sunday, February 23, there will be a church parade in the Glasgow Avenue Hall at 3:30 p.m. On Wednesday, February 26, a patrol and troop leaders' banquet will be held. Scouts will meet in the hall at 6 p.m. on Thursday, February 27.

House Ransacked By Burglars Here

Articles valued at more than $100 were stolen from the home of E. H. Baker, 403 Simcoe Street, by burglars who ransacked every room in the house, Detectives Louis Callon and Angus Munro of the city police reported yesterday.

Contents of drawers and cupboards were dumped on the floor by the thieves in an apparent search for money, police said.

No money was stolen by the burglars, who gained entry through a kitchen window which had been left unlocked. They took a watch, an alarm clock, two suit coats, a pair of trousers and three pairs of nylon stockings.

Cates Suggests Treatment For Offenders

Increase in sex offences against young children was deplored in the Legislature yesterday by J. H. Cates (Cln., North Vancouver), who declared that every decent man and woman in the province was deeply concerned over the situation.

He urged that immediate action should be taken to secure a change in the Criminal Code to allow of longer sentences being imposed by the courts, with some form of treatment for offenders while imprisoned.

Maximum sentences now provided were "a disgrace and an affront to heart-broken parents," Mr. Cates declared.

"We are concerned about the protection of our forests and our fish and game. What about our children?" he asked.

On the subject of juvenile delinquency, the mariner member repeated the plan he put forward in the House last year for the establishment of a training ship for boys, in conjunction with the Borstal home.

His suggestion was that on a merit system for good conduct boys could be promoted from the home to the ship, providing the nucleus for a much-needed coast guard service.

"It would be good business for British Columbia. It would demonstrate for the world that we were advanced in our treatment of young people," Mr. Cates advocated.

McGeer Talks With Cabinet

Dissatisfaction with sections of the Goldenberg Commisison report affecting Vancouver city was expressed before a special meeting of the Provincial Cabinet yesterday by Senator G. G. McGeer, mayor of Vancouver, and members of the city council.

After more than an hour in conference with the Cabinet, Mayor McGeer said "certain proposals" for greater financial assitsance for Vancouver had been presented, but refused to disclose their nature, since they were under consideration by the Government.

He made no secret of the fact, however, that Vancouver is vigorqualy opposed to the commission's recommendation for a tax on 75 per cent of improvements, against Vancouver's present 50 per cent.

Accompanying the mayor were Aldermen George C. Miller, finance committee chairman; Charles E. Thompson and Charles Jones, and corporation council D. E. McTaggart, K.C.

Williams Says City Council To Get Report

City Council members of the B.C. Agricultural Association executive were tight lipped yesterday following a meeting with Ed Whyte, president, and W. H. Mearns.

The meeting was called by Alderman Edward Williams following orders from the City Council to investigate allegations made by T. A. Cresswell that the executive had been acting without the knowledge or authorisation of the City Council members.

Mr. Cresswell demanded an itemized account of all monies spent by the association and a statement of who authorized applying for a permit to construct a $150,000 building at the Willows fair grounds.

Following the meeting Ald. Williams said it had been definitely established that, according to the charter, the City Council representatives were still executive members. He would make no statement on other allegations made but promised a report would be made to the City Council following a further meeting with the association's officers.

At the last meeting of the City Council, Ald. Williams stated he would also find out who had authorized appointment of a solicitor to appear before Oak Bay Council on behalf of the association and who had authorized the engaging of an architect to draw up plans for a building.

Mr. Whyte dismissed reporter's questions regarding the allegations made concerning the association's action, stating Mr. Cresswell was merely a "publicity seeker."

Inquests Set Into Fatalities

Inquest into the death of four-year-old Sherry Prior will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow at McCall's Funeral Parlors, Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner, announced yesterday. He said an inquest also would be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Parlors at 2 p.m. into the death of 19-month-old Johnnie Speedie.

Both children died yesterday after automobile accidents.

Sherry Prior, 524 John Street, died of internal injuries shortly after 6 p.m. Thursday, two hours after she was struck by a wood truck at the junction of John and Bridges Streets. According to police, the car was driven by Hookam Singh, 607 Manchester Road. Police said no charge would be laid against the driver.

John Speedie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Speedie, of Sidney, died in Rest Haven Sanitorium at 1 p.m. Thursday after he was struck by a milk truck in the driveway of his parents' auto court at Sidney.

Driver of the milk truck, according to British Columbia Police, was William A. Petherbridge, 1160 Third Street, Sidney.

Donald S. Cameron Dies in Vancouver

A former manual training teacher in Victoria schools, Donald Stewart Cameron died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cumming, 4052 Trinity Street, Vancouver.

Funeral services will be held here Saturday afternoon from McCall Brothers' Funeral Chapel. Besides his daughter, Mr. Cameron is survived by two sons, Donald and David, both of Portland.

Cadets Receive Model of Ship

SAINT JOHN, Feb. 20.—"You have the world to choose from and it is your duty to carry the feeling of democracy throughout the world," S. W. Crabbe, general superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway's New Brunswick district, today told the Royal Canadian Rodney Sea Cadets in presenting to them a model of the company's steamship Princess Alice, at present in the triangle run between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle.

Ronald McDonell Dies in Victoria

Ronald "Pete" McDonell, a resident of Vancouver since 1910, died in Victoria on Wednesday evening after a very short illness contracted while he was visiting his son, C.P.O. Allan McDonell, R.C.N.

He was a brother of Allan J. McDonell, Coalition Member of the Legislature for Vancouver Centre.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Home Gardeners

May we suggest that you dig your garden at once. Our heaviest Winter rains are probably past—we have a long, dry Summer. We plan our property drainage to prevent Winter flooding, but from now on we should do everything possible to retain maximum moisture in the soil to carry forward. Soil becomes sodden, compact during Winter, facilitating excessive "run-off." Blotting paper absorbs more ink than foolscap. Loose, friable soil holds more moisture than unworked soil. If it becomes firm again before planting, do not turn over again but use a digging fork, insert full depth, pry up quickly to loosen thoroughly.

Member Calls For Action On Health Plan

Public and governmental apathy toward the growing menace of cancer, second largest death-dealing disease in the province, was criticized in the Legislature yesterday by Randolph Keating (C.C.F., Kaslo-Slocan).

"It is a scourge that must be recognized," declared the Legislature's youngest member. "It is time we made substantial increases in facilities for treatment of this disease. Last year we voted $25,000 to combat cancer, while in Saskatchewan $380,000 has been allotted for a similar purpose."

He recommended that the Government should provide complete free cancer treatment for everyone, possibly on the lines of the successful tuberculosis traveling clinics.

Mr. Harding made a plea, too, for greater attention to the problem of arthritis, which, he said, was ten times more prevalent than tuberculosis, and the most crippling of all ailments; yet very little had been done in Canada either in diagnosis or treatment.

To cope with increasing problems of disease, the Government was making no attempt to strike at the root of the whole matter, Mr. Harding asserted. He was convinced that the only solution lay in the institution of full health insurance coverage, with emphasis on preventive measures. There was no excuse for the Province to withhold action simply because it was waiting for the Dominion Government to act. A Provincial plan could be designed that would tie in with any Federal scheme that might "blossom forth within the next few years."

In an appeal for greater help for old age pensioners, he urged abolition of the "despicable" means test and changes in the proof of age requirements to make an affidavit acceptable in cases where birth certificates could not be produced.

Legion Council To Protest Allco Condition

Conditions at the Allco Infirmary, five miles east of Haney on the Alouette River, will be protested by the Victoria and District Zone Council of the Canadian Legion, it was announced last night.

The zone council will make its protest to the Provincial Government through the Legion Provincial Command.

"The zone council deplores the conditions at this establishment especially in view of the fact this country boasts of such a high standard of democracy," the resolution stated.

Urging better treatment for the inmates, "who are Canadians regardless of their color," the council cited "deplorable" conditions existing at the infirmary. It was pointed out that the institution was inaccessible to visitors and was lodged in a dreary collection of huts and shacks which were formerly the headquarters for a logging company.

There are no facilities for physiotherapy, laboratory work or research, and there is no resident doctor or registered nurse, according to reports studied by the Legion.

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

Many Young Men Here Seeking Deepsea Jobs

Increased deepsea shipping activity in Victoria has followed a large number of inquiries from young men of Victoria and the Island who are anxious to sail the Seven Seas.

A considerable number of these inquiries are being received by E. Bahr, business agent for the Canadian Seamen's Union in Victoria.

"Yes, I have fellows coming in to see me nearly every day of the week, young men who are anxious to go [illegible] but right now there is no demand for inexperienced men," Mr. Bahr said.

All seamen from Victoria and the Island are hired through a form of "manning pool" operated by the union in Vancouver, Mr. Bahr said, noting there were many veteran mariners already on hand to fill "almost immediately" any job that might come along.

Many of the men available, he added, were those who had been "beached" as a result of Canadian freighters being sold to foreign shipping interests. Others were men who had spent the war years on ships of all descriptions in many parts of the world.

Among those seeking jobs in deepsea ships are also a number who want to work a one-way passage to the United Kingdom and other countries throughout the world. It was impossible to help these men, Mr. Bahr said, as the union signs up men only for return voyages.

Shaw Declares Amalgamation Inevitable Here

"Amalgamation is inevitable, and is coming no matter what views of the municipal councils may be," said Forrest L. Shaw in an address delivered at a luncheon meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce yesterday at the Strathcona Hotel.

He warned that "the longer it is in coming, the longer will this community have to go without those services a city of 100,000 people needs and should expect to have."

"This question of amalgamation is a live one, and it must be answered in the near future," Mr. Shaw added.

Noting "this is a small community, the urban areas of the four municipalities comprising about 28 square miles," the speaker added; "It goes without saying that every part of this small area is dependent on every other part. We are interdependent in everything."

"We pay more for services separately than we would have to under joint service and we are putting up with less efficient services than we would have to if we had one municipality," Mr. Shaw stressed.

Millions of Feet Of Cord for Sale

War surplus nylon braided cord, made for use as parachute shroud lines, is now being offered for sale by War Assets Corporation.

Nearly 7,000,000 feet of white nylon cord, enough to stretch from Montreal to Winnipeg, is now for sale. Approximately one-eighth of an inch in diameter, the cord is wound on spools and is strong. It is suggested for use as drapery cords, Venetian blind cords, clotheslines, heavy fishing lines and piping on house furnishings or women's clothing.

Inquiries Urged When Persons Change Names

Legal changes of name should not be permitted without some inquiry into the background of the persons applying to make the change, J. H. Cates (Coalition, North Vancouver), asserted in the Legislature yesterday.

"Here we are handing out names without any reason being required from the applicant," he pointed out. "If you are the owner of a ship under Canadian registry and wish to change her name, you must produce a certificate that the vessel is seaworthy and fit for the service intended.

"This is to prevent some vessel which is a menace to navigation being given a new name and sent to sea to cause loss of life or damage. To me it is just as important to see that a good name is not given to someone who isn't worthy of it—one who might be a menace to society."

Mr. Cates suggested that a good name given to an unworthy citizen opened the door to the possible spread of seditious propaganda because the new name led people to believe the person to be one of their own countrymen.

Noting that 1,422 persons had changed names since 1940 in this province, he directed attention to requirements that Ontario had seen fit to include in its Change of Name Act.

The transportation of convicts to the mainland of Australia, which had been used as a penal colony, ceased in 1840.

Will Be Honored At Investiture

Mother of a deceased officer and her son's flight commander will be recipients of the Distinguished Flying Cross at an investiture to be held at the Air Cadet Centre at Jericho Beach tonight at 8:30.

They are Mrs. Hazel Scott, Vancouver, mother of Flight Lieutenant Jimmie Whalen, D.F.C., R.C.A.F. fighter pilot, who was killed in Burma in April, 1944, and Squadron Leader R. T. F. Davidson, D.F.C. The presentations will be made by Air Vice-Marshal J. L. Plant, C.B.E., A.F.C., air officer commanding, Western Air Command.

Whalen and Davidson were stationed in Ceylon in 1942 and took part in the first action in which Japanese forces were repelled by the Allies.
